

Did You Know

By Pat J. Kirwin

THAT Pickaway-co voters in July, 1872, voted down a proposal to assist in the construction of two railroads through the county. As early as 1871, several of the city's prominent citizens started a campaign to awaken interest in the proposal and over $50,000 was contributed by some of the wealthy residents of the county to finance the project.

One of the roads was to be known as the Farmers and Miners railroad and would connect Circleville with McArthur. Connections were to be made with the Baltimore and Ohio road at the latter city and so Circleville products could be shipped directly to eastern shores. The other road was to be called The Scioto Valley road (and was later built) and it was to operate north and south through the Scioto Valley.

George W. Gregg, J. P. Smith, A. J. Haswell, John H. Borts and D. M. Potter served as the railroad executive committee in the county and a wide campaign was carried on to urge the citizens to vote for the project. It was necessary for the county to contribute $150,000 for the Farmers and Miners road and $100,000 to the Scioto Valley project.

The county commissioners decided that the taxpayers should decide at an election whether or not they wished to vote for this additional tax. And the voters responded favorably.

It was believed at the time that many of the voters would have voted for one of the roads but were reluctant to favor the construction of two railway projects at the same time. The C. and M. V. road was operating through the county at the time, but there was no direct line with eastern markets. Later the Scioto Valley road (Norfolk & Western) was built.

That the once-thrilling drama, "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," was first presented in Circleville in May, 1872, at Baldwin Becher's place. Newspapers of the time commented, "The youth who assumed the character of Mary Morgan played it with a tenderness and pathos that drew tears from the stoutest hearts."

THAT the first "selling to minors" charge filed in Pickaway-co courts was recorded on May 10, 1872, when E. Z. Hays, a local attorney, filed a petition for $1,000 damages. Under the Adair Liquor Law, passed in 1871, any one who sold liquor to minors was subject to a fine and liable to damages. Hays' petition contended that a local saloon-keeper sold whiskey to a 16-year-old boy.

That the following amusing incident, said to have taken place in a Sunday school class near this city, is reported in The Herald of June, 1872. The superintendent of the school was reviewing the lesson and talking to the pupils. Reading the verse, "Let your loins be girded and your lights burning," he asked the question, "Why are we commanded to gird our loins?" According to The Herald of the time, a little shaver immediately sang out, "To keep our breeches up."

That Circleville was a "lively spot" 60 years ago. Newspapers of the time report that meetings, dances, concerts, celebrations and other forms of amusement were under way most every night. The Herald of June, 1872, commented that the city was unusually busy "last Friday night," (June 16). We had a grand hop at the Pickaway House, a concert at the First Presbyterian church, a young people's party at Dr. Stribling's home, a colored festival at Eagles Hall, a railroad meeting at the court house and a number of the city's other folk journeying to Washington C. H. to an Odd Fellow's celebration.

SENATE STUDIES LINDBERGH'S PAPER PROFITS; G.O.P. FORCES GIRD TO FIGHT CANCELLATION

Data Gathered by Black Committee; Over Million Gain Shown

IN HOT POSITION

Pan American Airways Source of Stock Warrants

Copyright 1934, by International News Service

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Data showing that Col. Charles A. Lindbergh had a paper profit of $1,330,000 out of stock option warrants given to him by Pan American Airways, the only company exempted from Postmaster General Farley's blanket order cancelling air mail contracts, was assembled today by the Black senate committee.

The Pan American bounty was entirely separate from a $250,000 stock gift made to Lindbergh by Transcontinental Air transport. The Pan American stock options included 10,000 shares redeemable at $15 per share and an equal amount redeemable at $30 per share, the committee has been informed.

The stock reached a peak of $89 in 1929. At this figure, Lindbergh's gross profit would have amounted to $1,780,000. After paying the $450,000 required to exercise the options, he could have netted the tidy sum of $1,330,000 without the risk of a penny.

STILL HAD PLENTY

When Pan American stock hit its all-time low of 11 1/2 in 1931, the colonel still had a large amount, as represented by these options, in his possession, according to evidence the committee has gathered. The stock recently has ranged in the neighborhood of $40 per share.

As technical adviser to TAT and also to Pan American, Lindbergh today is a figure in the controversy raging around the air mail investigation and Farley's cancellation order.

The interest of these two companies in the existing tangled situation are diametrically opposite. In all his epochal career as a pathfinder of the air, Lindbergh probably has been confronted with no more difficult situation.

Transcontinental and Western Air express has thrust the Colonel

(Continued on Page Three)

SCOUTS HELPING COLLECT GOODS

Weiler Reports Early Success; Co-operation in City and County Needed.

Boys Scouts, directed by E. W. Weiler, office manager of the CWA administration here, have begun to investigate homes in Pickaway-co in regard to articles for needy families. The showing so far has been excellent, Mr. Weiler reports. People are asked to give anything

The CWA payroll for the county was $3,895.01 during the past weeks, it was disclosed.

They have that will be useful in relief; canned food is especially sought.

The drive will be completed by next Saturday.

Scouts will call at the homes in the city and county the next week. Cooperation is urged. D. L. Buchanan, superintendent of county school, is cooperating by supervising rural collection and distribution.

Food, commodities, furniture, clothing, kitchen utensils, or anything else that will help the needy is solicited.

All materials that are too large to be taken to the school building will be called for. Otherwise the centralized schools will be the central collecting points in the townships.

GUARD CRIMINALS

LIMA, Feb. 17.—A more closely-woven guard net was drawn about the Allen county jail and court-house today as the three members of the notorious Dillinger outlaw gang, accused of the murder of Sheriff Jess L. Sarber, were scheduled to be brought out for a second arraignment here.

Additional machine guns were understood to have been set up within the shadows of the jail and courthouse as officials took precautions against the possibility that pals of the trio on the outside might stage a daring attempt to effect the release of the three prisoners.

Father Admits Putting Body of Son, 8, Through Air-hole in Icy Stream

Pointing to a hole in the ice-covered river near his Rickford, Ill., home, Charles Backus, middle-aged vegetable peddler, had confessed today to putting the body of his 8-year-old son in the stream. Backus told police: "I put it there. I was scared."

The child, Charles, Jr., had been missing eight days. The father had persistently denied knowledge of his son's whereabouts until he finally broke down, confessing.

Then followed the trip to the river where the peddler pointed to the hole into which he said he stuffed the boy's body. There was no trace of the body and the river was to be dynamited today in an effort to bring it to the surface. Backus said he had repudiated the boy when he came home from school a week ago Wednesday. The boy appeared ill, the peddler said.

Police quoted Backus as saying: "I struck him and he became unconscious. We (possibly members of the family) carried him onto a bed and rubbed him, and I thought he died of poison candy. I took the body and went to the river where I found an air hole. I stuffed the boy into that." Backus, the dead child, and his mother are shown above.

INDICTMENT OF VETERANS' PAY PAIR PLANNED AGAIN REVIVED

Davis Says Retainer To Be Filed Here; Brown-Co Gets Popham.

Edgar Popham, alias Earl Baker and a score of other names, was turned over, Friday, to Sheriff Steve Miller, of Georgetown, Brown-co, by Sheriff Asa Butterfield, of Hamilton-co, to face charges of robbery alleged to have been perpetrated by his band in that county.

Sheriff Miller told Sheriff Charles Radcliff over long-distance telephone that he intends to have Popham tried under the habitual criminal code which makes a life sentence possible.

Prosecutor Ray W. Davis intimated, Saturday, that Popham and his partner Jesse Bales, will be indicted by the next grand jury for abduction and robbery of Luther Walters, merchant policeman. Bales has confessed the crime and says he has been mistaken several times for Neal Bowman, notorious outlaw.

Six holdups in Brown-co are attributed to Popham, Bales and three other held in the Brown-co jail. Four of them were filing stations. Popham was arrested Wednesday evening by Hamilton-co deputies when found asleep near Cincinnati. Bales was arrested in Shawnee, Okla., by Sheriff Miller who traced a 'tip' to that city.

8 DIE IN FIRE

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Fire sweeping through an east side tenement house early today took at least eight lives. Firemen still are searching through the gutted, dangerously weakened structure for others who might have died in the flames.

Two children—possibly more—were trapped and burned to death. Their bodies charred beyond recognition, as firemen fought desperately to control the blaze.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Miss Daisy Moats, of W. Ohio, st. underwent a major operation at Berger hospital, Saturday morning.

RILEY NAMED IN 2 ACTIONS FOR DAMAGE

Lorain Doctor and Wife Seek $55,000 as Result of Auto Crash

MORE COURT NEWS

Gerhardt to Administer Mrs. Walters' Estate

John Riley, of Chillicothe, formerly of this city, has been sued for $55,000 damages in Pickaway-co common pleas court by Dr. and Mrs. L. Leonard Levin, of Lorain.

The doctor asks $50,000, and Mrs. Levin sues for $5,000. Their attorneys are Levin and Levin.

The actions are the result of an automobile crash at Court and Town-sts. in this city, last Oct. 1, at 2 p. m. The petition says the Levins were travelling north on Court-st when Riley, who was going south on Court, turned his Chrysler coupe into the path of the Levin Dodge sedan.

VIOLATIONS CITED

Five violations of the city traffic ordinances and 12 alleged acts of negligence are charged against Riley in the two petitions.

The doctor charges he suffered numerous painful and permanent injuries and that he has not been able to follow his practice of medicine in his former manner. He also includes damages to his automobile in the action.

Mrs. Levin seeks $5,000 for personal injuries.

NAMED ADMINISTRATOR

George E. Gerhardt, local attorney, had been appointed administrator, Saturday, of the estate of Mrs. Harriett Gallagher Walters, wife of the late Barton Walters, who preceded him in death.

Mr. Gerhardt provided bond of $10,000.

Mrs. Walters is survived by two children by a former marriage. Both live in Columbus.

The letters of administration on file in Judge C. C. Young's court list personal property valued at at least $5,000, the same being a claim against the estate of Mr. Walters.

APPOINTED BY COURT

Paul E. Adkins, S. Court-st., has been named administrator of the estate of the late William Maechtel, Washington-twp. The property is valued at $697.56.

Appraisers are John A. Ryan, George G. Adkins, and William Radcliff.

MARRIAGE ICENSES

George Lawrence Gordon, 27, Cedarville, filling station attendant, and LaDonna Maxine Dorn, 21, New Holland. Rev. W. B. Rose.

Charles Oscar Zwicker, 21, W. Union-st., mechanic, and Dorothy Irene Irwin, 21, 212 W. High-st. H. O. Eveland, justice of peace.

Lester George Hawk, 22, Watt-st., clerk, and Marguerite Leach, 22, 138 W. High-st., nurse.

Clarence Lawrence Ervin, 21, South Columbus, laborer, and Margaret Edith Scarberry, 21, W. Ohio-st. Rev. Smith.

REPORT ED SMITH ESCAPED POLICE

Sheriff Charles Radcliff was informed, Friday, that Ed Smith, of Cincinnati, arrested here for a series of drill thefts, had escaped Athens and Nelsonville police officers in Logan this week.

Radcliff was not notified directly by the report coming from the Pomeroy sheriff.

Smith was jailed here on suspicion after which he confessed a number of thefts over southern Ohio. He was taken to Washington C. H. this week to search for two drills sold there and it was on the way back to the Athens jail that he is reported to have escaped.

WHAT ABOUT RELIEF?

age pensions and to pay 1933 and current obligations of state aid school districts, together with a handful of miscellaneous measures of general interest, atoned to some extent for an otherwise unproductive session.

REMEDIES IGNORED Although warned by the governor when the special taxation session convened on Jan. 30, that relief measures were absolutely essential for financially distressed political subdivisions, the legislators ignored all remedies suggested by the special joint tax-

C. of C. To Hear Myers' Address

Chillicothe Secretary to Speak, Feb. 20, on Merchants Council.

The Chamber of Commerce is planning a big meeting Tuesday, February 20th, in the Chamber of Commerce rooms when R. E. "Mike" Myers, secretary of the Chillicothe Chamber of Commerce, speaks.

With the Retail Merchants' Code in effect and many important matters to consider Mr. Myers will bring a message of interest to every merchant in Circleville, and in surrounding towns.

He will explain the functions of the Retail Merchants organization and how it operates in the Chamber of Commerce. Since plans are under way to form a Retail Trade Council this meeting will be very timely and the committee urges that every merchant attend, whether a member of the Chamber of Commerce or not.

The committee arranging the meeting is Joe Burns, Glenn Nickerson, and Harry Steinhauser. The meeting is scheduled to start at 6:30 p. m.

ARMY FLYERS DIE IN CRASH

Three Men Testing Air Routes For Hauling Mail Are Victims.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Feb. 17.—Three United States army fliers were dead today in the first challenge hurled by the elements at the federal government's venture of carrying the mails over the dangerous mountainous areas of the west.

Two officers were killed in Weber canyon about 60 miles east of Salt Lake and another perished in a burning ship six miles southeast of Jerome, Idaho, last night.

The men were all second lieutenants in the army's air corps reserve, and were engaged in trial runs preparatory to flying the mails Monday morning.

The dead: Second Lieut. Jean D. Grenier, third attack group, Fort Crockett, Galveston, Texas.

Second Lieut. Edwin D. White, ninety-fifth pursuit squadron, March Field, Riverside, Cal.

Second Lieut. James Y. Eastman, seventh bombardment group, March Field, Riverside.

Apparently blinded by a snowstorm which howled over the most difficult air mail route in the west, Lieuts. Grenier and White fell to their death while enroute to Cheyenne from Salt Lake. The crash occurred early Friday afternoon and the bodies were found about 4:30 p. m. by Orson Maxwell, a lone prospector in the canyon.

Word of the tragedy reached Salt Lake City at 6 p. m., and immediately a board of inquiry headed by Maj. S. E. Brown was ordered to the scene by Col. H. H. Arnold, commanding air mail operations in the western area.

The three members of the board arrived at Oakley, Utah, at 10 p. m., and began the arduous task of reaching the wreckage 21 miles away.

Fourteen miles of the journey will have to be made by team and sled. The bodies will probably be returned to Salt Lake City some time today.

Pending a report by the board, Colonel Arnold had no comment to make.

Police Court

YOUNG BOUND OVER James Young, 52, colored, was bound over to the grand jury Saturday morning by Mayor W. E. Cady following his arrest for alleged relations with Ella Heeter, white, who was bound over for adultery, Thursday.

Young pleaded not guilty and was held under $500 bond. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Miller Fissell.

ROSEBOOM IN AGAIN

William Roseboom, Maplewood-ave, was back in the county jail, Saturday, after his arrest for intoxication. Released less than a week ago after serving $10 and costs for intoxication Roseboom, was fined $25 and costs by Mayor Cady, Saturday. A threat of a workhouse term faces Roseboom for a third offense.

WEESE PAYS $10 Fred Weese, of Columbus, paid $10 and costs to Mayor Cady, Saturday, after a plea of guilty to intoxication.

HULING SERVICES

Funeral services were held at 4 p. m. today for Frank C. Huling, 51, of 194 S. Parkview-ave, Columbus, who was killed by a hit-skip driver early Friday.

Mr. Huling was walking home after his car had stalled, when the accident happened.

Miss Hester Huling, a daughter, is the fiancée of Lemuel Weidner, this city.

ANNUAL CAGE MEET OPENS IN C.A.C. GYM

Ashville-Pickaway Begin Activity at 1; Seven Games Today

FAVOR ASHVILLERS

Upsets May Have Hand in Outcome, However

With several important contests scheduled for this afternoon and evening sessions, county basketball fans stormed the Circleville Athletic Club gymnasium at noon Saturday to obtain points of vantage to view the games.

Four contests were on the afternoon's schedule and three were set for the evening.

Here is the line-up: 1 p.m., Ashville vs. Pickaway, boys. 2 p.m., Darby vs. Saltcreek, boys. 3 p.m., Washington vs. Perry, boys. 4 p.m., Walnut vs. Scioto, girls. 7 p.m., Deer creek vs. Monroe, boys. 8 p.m., Scioto vs. Jackson, boys. 9 p.m., Monroe vs. Ashville, girls.

Enough action will be provided in these games to keep all the fans of the county on the edge of their seats.

PICKAWAY UNDERDOG

The Ashville boys team, favored to win the tournament by many went into action in the tournament opener with the Pickaway-twp team as the opposition. Pickaway, naturally, was the underdog because of its season record, but every member of the squad held high hopes of pulling a surprise. One member Thursday evening remarked: "Ashville can be beaten, and it might as well be us as anyone else." That's the attitude of the team, but Coach Kauber's boys realize what they are up against in this tournament since they are the favorites, and no hint of over-confidence has been permitted to enter the squad's ranks.

The winner of this game meets New Holland next Friday at 7 p.m.

Darby and Saltcreek are two more good teams in the upper bracket. Darby has not been going so well as earlier in the season while the Saltcreek boys have dropped only one contest, that to Ashville. The Tarletons are led by Skeet Hartnatt, one of the county's veterans.

PERRY FAVORITE

Perry-twp is favored to overcome whatever opposition Washington offers, although these "Dutch" from Washington way sometimes are preposterously stubborn about defeat. The winner of this fray meets the winner of the Darby-Saltcreek tilt next Friday at 8 p. m.

The four o'clock girls game

(Continued on Page Three)

PRESIDENT READY TO RENEW C. W. A.

Federal Plan To End This Year on May 1; Need To Govern Action.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—President Roosevelt stands ready to recognize the Civil Works program next winter, if conditions warrant such action, although he plans to wind up the present schedule of projects May 1.

The President has no men of allowing people to stagger next winter, it had been made clear today. At the same time, he feels that winding up the present program will not cause undue suffering.

The President is confident that re-organization, if necessary at all next winter, will not have to be on a scale comparable to that of the present set-up. He feels that the normal pickup in employment throughout the summer and early fall will do a great deal to absorb the unemployed of the country.

TRUCK IS BURNED

A truck loaded with household furnishings was destroyed by fire after it turned over near South Bloomfield early Saturday morning. The name of the driver was not learned.

M. E. MEN TO MEET

Members of the Methodist Episcopal men's club are to meet in the church Sunday at 2:30 p. m. to make final plans for the annual George Washington supper, Thursday.

Home Church Religion Character

Sunday Service

©1928 D. CARL YODER

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Herman A. Sayre, Minister
Church school at 9 o'clock.
Clarence R. Barnhart, general superintendent. Homer Swartz, Charlotte Phelps, Irma Rader and Mrs. Mary Denman, department superintendents. Classes for all ages.
Morning worship at 10:30. The sermon subject is "A Saviour for All." Glen Gebb will sing "The Lost Chord" by Sullivan. The choir will sing the anthem, "Praise the Lord O My Soul," by Ashford.
Epworth League meeting at 6:30 p. m. Debate on "Compulsory Military Training." John Hegele and Ross Henry will have the affirmative and Betty Brown and Betty Sayre, the negative.
"The Lost Church," a four act play will be given by the Wesley Foundation Players of Ohio University in the main auditorium at 7:30. The general public is urged to attend.
The ministers of the Western half of the Chillicothe district will meet in the church parlors Wednesday at 10 o'clock. Twenty-five pastors are expected to be present. Prayer service Wednesday evening at 7:15.
The sixteenth annual George Washington dinner will be served by the Men's club of the church from 5 until 7 o'clock Thursday evening.
Choir practice at 7:30 p. m. Thursday.

FIRST UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH
T. C. Harper, Pastor.
9:15—Sunday school. Classes for all ages.
10:25—Worship. Sermon, "Our First Great American." Junior Christian Endeavor.
6:15—School of Religion for young people. The pastor will conduct a series of Sunday evening discussions on vital religious problems. All young people are invited to come. Bring the question that has been bothering you. Young church members and those desiring to become church members are urged to be present.
7:15—Evangelistic service. Our revival begins in one week. Tonight we will discuss "Unanswered Prayer."
7:15 Monday—the choir meets for cantata rehearsal.
7:15 Wednesday—Prayer service. Choir meeting will follow.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Emil S. Toensmeier, Pastor.
9:15 a. m. Bible school. Marvin Steeley, superintendent.
10:15 a. m. Morning worship. Sermon, "Friends of God." Organ prelude, "Meditation" by Massenet. Vocal solo, "In My Father's House are Many Mansions" by Ward-Stephens, sung by Mrs. Clark Will. Offertory, "Serenade" by Schumann. "Postlude in G" by Mundo.
7:30 p. m. Wednesday—mid-week Lenten preaching service.
Perseverance and spirit have done wonders in all ages.—Washington.

FURNITURE
Prices Are Still Low—
Buy Now and Save.
Mason Bros.
Rugs Furniture Stoves.

To preserve in one's duty and be silent is the best answer to calumny.—Washington.

MEN'S FURNISHINGS
Of the Better Kind at Low Prices.
CADDY MILLER HAT SHOP

The determinations of Providence are always wise often inscrutable.—Washington.

Voss Washer
With Electrically Controlled Wringer
Only $73.45
THE SOUTHERN OHIO ELECTRIC CO.

CHURCH OF CHRIST (Undenominational)
First National Bank Building.
R. Tibbs Maxey, Minister.
10 a. m. Bible school. Lord's Supper and sermon.
6:30 p. m. Young people.
7:30 p. m. Preaching.
7:30 p. m. Wednesday, "Hour of Prayer" and Bible study at the residence of the minister, 451 E. Main-st. This meeting is remarkably well attended and the interest in the study of the Crusade of Christian Action steadily grows.
Dr. Rothermel, missionary to India, spoke both morning and night last Lord's day. A good attendance greeted the missionary each time. The hearers were deeply impressed and went away feeling a greater concern for the salvation of those benighted people.
Have you heard our new song, "I Will Put Jesus First in My Life." What do you know about the "Christian Action" movement that is spreading everywhere? Get into the movement and help Christianize this wicked world.

TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH
Dr. G. J. Troutman and Rev. G. L. Troutman, pastors.
Sunday school at 9 a. m. Regular service at 10:15 a. m. Subject of sermon, "Problems That Confront Our Church." Christ says, "Tell it Unto the Church."
Evening service at 7 o'clock. "Superstition" will be the theme. Those who believe in curious arts, signs and fortune telling are especially invited.
Lenten worship Wednesday evening at 7:30. "The Unusuality of Christ" will constitute the theme. Lecture on the fundamentals of the Lutheran church will be given after the evening service.
Ladies' society of Ringgold church will meet Wednesday at 2 p. m.
Intermediate choir will practice Wednesday evening after services. Ringgold choir convenes Thursday at 7 p. m.
Senior choir rehearses Friday at 7:30 p. m.
Catechetical instructions Saturday at 1:30 p. m.
Our Lenten services started out with a practically full church. May the interest manifested not only continue but increase, to the glory of God and the benefit of souls.

CALVARY EVANGELICAL CHURCH
C. W. Ruhman, Pastor.
Sunday school at 9 a. m. A. R. Hernley, superintendent.
Morning worship at 10:15. Sermon subject, "The Meaning of Church Membership." Rev. Maxwell will preach.
Junior League at 6:15 p. m. Miss Frances Kibler, superintendent.
Young People's League at 6:15 p. m.
Prayer meeting at 6:15 p. m. Evangelistic service at 7 p. m. This will be the closing service of the Evangelistic campaign. Rev. Maxwell will preach on the subject, "Outside the Door." Mr. Maxwell's sermons have been very helpful and greatly appreciated by all. The revival meeting has been a great blessing to the church and to people of the community. Twenty six people have bowed at the altar of prayer for conversion or reclamation in the Christian faith.
Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.
The Albright Brotherhood will meet at the Cedar Hill Evangelical church Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.
Knowledge is in every country the surest basis of public happiness.—Washington.

Knowledge is in every country the surest basis of public happiness.—Washington.

START THE DAY RIGHT WITH A CUP OF NEUDING'S STAR BLEND COFFEE
Sold Only By
E. S. NEUDING
215 E. Main St.

I would not seek or retain popularity at the expense of one moral virtue.—Washington.

For Quality Hardware
COME TO
BARRERE & NICKERSON
113 W. Main St.

The Church Invites You

WASHINGTON AND WORSHIP
George Washington at the beginning of the War of Revolution, issued the following order, "That the troops may have an opportunity of attending public worship, as well as to take some rest after the great fatigue they have gone through, the general in the future excuses them from duty on Sundays, except on special occasions, until further orders. We can have but little hope of the blessing of heaven on our arms if we insult it by our impiety and folly."
On another occasion he said, "It is impossible to govern the world without God. He must be worse than an infidel that lacks faith, and more than wicked that has not gratitude enough to acknowledge his obligation."
Why not accept the invitation and COME TO CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY?
D. CARL YODER.

DIAMONDS

Watches - Clocks - Jewelry

(High grade merchandise sold by the concern during it's 40 years in Circleville.)

ED. SENSENBRENNER

128 S. Court St.

ST. PHILIP'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Rev. L. C. Sherburne, Rector.
Sunday Services:
9 a. m. Church school.
10:15 a. m. Holy communion and sermon. (In observance of First Sunday in Lent).
7:30 p. m. Evening prayer and sermon.
Special preacher, Rev. Thomas Donaldson, St. Alban's church, Bexley, Ohio.
Thursday, Feb. 22, 10 a. m. Holy Communion.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH
B. R. Reed, Minister.
Preaching at 11 a. m.
Sunday school at 2:30 p. m.
B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m.
Preaching at 7:30 p. m. Subject, "Christian Resignation."
Prayer meeting Wednesday evening.
Everybody welcome.

ST. JOSEPH'S CATHOLIC CHURCH
W. Mound-st.
Rev. Fr. J. J. Herman, Pastor.
Stations of the cross on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and also at Friday evening at 7:30.
Wednesday, Friday and Saturday are Ember Days. Days of fasting and abstinence.

ST. PAUL A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. M. H. Johnston, pastor
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Charles Martin, superintendent.
Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
Prayer meeting Wednesday night.
Queen Esther club meeting Thursday night.
True friendship is a plant of slow growth and must undergo and withstand the shocks of adversity before it is entitled to the appellation.—Washington.

WHY NOT TRY COKE IN YOUR FURNACE—
You'll Like the Way it Burns and Heats.
R. P. ENDERLIN COAL CO.

Associate yourself with men of good quality if you esteem your own reputation.—Washington.

QUALITY DRUGS
Prescriptions Accurately Compounded.
Geo. F. Grand-Girard
115 W. Main St.

Discussion on Questions S.S. Lesson

To what extent do body and soul influence each other?
Why are we so disposed to find fault in matters of religion?
How are men to get the help they need from Christ to meet all of life's difficulties?
How does Christ meet the need of the world?
Why should Jesus call a hated publican such as Matthew?
What is blasphemy? Why did the Pharisees accuse Jesus of blasphemy?
Clericus says, "A healthy soul invades the flesh and helps to make a healthy body. From forgiven pure hearts streams should flow out through he led bodies into the home and business and politics and the whole social order, everywhere working, healing and making a better world."
Lesson Prayer, "We are grateful to God for Jesus' power to heal soul and body; help us to the right perspective with out greatest concern about the soul, that which has in it eternal life."
Observe good faith and justice toward all nations.—Washington.
The cause of virtue and liberty is confined to no continent or climate.—Washington.
The man who commits no wrong will never be guilty of enormities.—Washington.
No man who is a profligate in his morals or a bad member of this civil community, can possibly be a true Christian or a credit to his own religious society.—Washington.
True religion affords government its surest support.—Washington.

The most enviable of all titles is the character of an honest man.—Washington.
Few men have virtue to withstand the highest bidder.—Washington.
There is no experience equal to that which is bought.—Washington.
It is much easier to avoid disagreements than to remove contents.—Washington.
The path to ease does not always lead to happiness.
It is much easier to set a lie going than to keep track of it.

COOK WITH THE G-E Hot Point Range
Save time, fuel, food and energy with Electric Cookery. It is faster, easier, cooler and makes cooking failures impossible, even for beginners.
Electric Cookery is like having an expert maid at no cost. Let us tell you about the G-E Electric Range.
The Southern Ohio Electric Co.
114 E. Main St. Phone 236.

Church Forum

What characteristics of Washington account for his greatness and continued fame?
Ambassador Davila of Chile said of Washington:
"The noble and majestic life of Washington is today the perfect symbol of the nation to which he gave life. There is in him something of lofty spirituality which removes him from other great soldier-statesmen of the past. He dignified men instead of oppressing them. He served his nation and did not make his nation serve him.
He made war, but he made things greater than war; he gave moral and political form to a republic.
He would rather take injustice than do injustice.
Always he did what he should, and not what he could.
For this, although his glory is great, his deeds are greater.
History has found in Washington little of the spectacular but much of inward greatness."
The cause of virtue and liberty is confined to no continent or climate.—Washington.
The man who commits no wrong will never be guilty of enormities.—Washington.
No man who is a profligate in his morals or a bad member of this civil community, can possibly be a true Christian or a credit to his own religious society.—Washington.
True religion affords government its surest support.—Washington.

The most enviable of all titles is the character of an honest man.—Washington.
Few men have virtue to withstand the highest bidder.—Washington.
There is no experience equal to that which is bought.—Washington.
It is much easier to avoid disagreements than to remove contents.—Washington.
The path to ease does not always lead to happiness.
It is much easier to set a lie going than to keep track of it.

COOK WITH THE G-E Hot Point Range
Save time, fuel, food and energy with Electric Cookery. It is faster, easier, cooler and makes cooking failures impossible, even for beginners.
Electric Cookery is like having an expert maid at no cost. Let us tell you about the G-E Electric Range.
The Southern Ohio Electric Co.
114 E. Main St. Phone 236.

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D. Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
© 1934, Western Newspaper Union.
Lesson for February 18
JESUS' POWER TO HELP

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 8:1-9:34.
GOLDEN TEXT—But ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. Matthew 9:13.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Forgives a Sinful Man.
JUNIOR TOPIC—How Jesus Proves He Can Forgive Sin.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Jesus Meets Our Needs.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Meeting Human Needs.
In chapters 8 and 9 of Matthew are grouped a number of miracles which exhibit the power of Jesus Christ over the chief foes of men—sickness, sin, satanic power, death, and storms. It is fitting that they should be grouped here following the laws of the kingdom, for they show the king's power to administer the affairs of the kingdom and produce within his subjects the graces of character demanded by these laws. It would make the lesson too long to attempt to consider all these miracles. Therefore certain of the most outstanding should be selected.
I. Jesus Heals a Leper (8:1-4).
1. The dreadful disease (v. 2). Leprosy was the most loathsome and hopeless disease known. In the Jewish ritual it was regarded as a symbol of sin. Just as leprosy was incurable by man, so only the Divine Physician can cure sin.
2. The leper's faith (v. 2). His cry was most pitiable, but his faith was strong. He fully believed that Jesus was able, but was uncertain as to his willingness, to heal him.
3. Jesus' power (v. 3). He put forth his hand and touched the leper, bidding the disease to depart, and instantly the man was cleansed.
II. Jesus Heals the Centurion's Servant (8:5-13).
1. The disease (v. 6). It was paralysis. In paralysis the victim is helpless.
2. The centurion's humility (v. 8). He first sent the Jewish elders and then his friends (Luke 7:3, 6) because he felt his own unworthiness. The condition of this servant was so grave that his master brushed aside timidity and personally appealed to Jesus.
3. The centurion's faith (vv. 8, 9). He believed that if Jesus would but speak the word his servant would be healed. His faith was so remarkable that Jesus marveled because it was not like anything he had discerned among the chosen people.
4. The wonderful power of Jesus (v. 13). He did not even need to see the helpless man and touch him, but needed only to speak the word and it was done.
III. Jesus Heals Peter's Mother-in-Law (8:14, 15).
This woman was sick of a fever. Jesus was invited into Peter's home to heal her, and upon his touching the hand of the patient the fever left her.
IV. Jesus Casts Out Demons (8:28-34).
After stilling the tempest, Jesus crossed to the other side of the sea into heathen territory.
1. Met by two men possessed by demons (v. 28). These men were in a desperate condition (Mark 5:1-17, and Luke 8:27). So fierce were they that no one could safely pass that way. Many today are demon possessed and their number is increasing (I Tim. 4:1).
2. What they knew about Christ (v. 29). They knew that he was the Son of God and that he had come to destroy the devil and his work. Among demons there is no doubt as to the deity of Jesus Christ and the judgment to come.
3. Limitation of the devil's power (v. 31). Although the devil is mighty in power, he cannot even enter a hog without God's permission.
I shall never attempt to palliate my own foibles by exposing the error of another.—Washington.

Easy to Be Happy
It is just as easy to be happy as to be miserable, if one makes up his mind to do it, and there is no doubt at all as to which pays the best.—Onward.

Washington's Reverence
One of the outstanding characteristics of Washington was his reverence. His reverence toward his mother was first noted. He gave up an early ambition to go to sea to please her. He manifested the greatest affection for her throughout her life.
He showed great reverence for God. Frequently he referred to Divine Providence as the cause for the preservation of his life and as the contributing cause for his successes.
He was reverent toward the church. He attended it assiduously. He was in favor of religious toleration and denominational cooperation. To attend services it was often necessary for him to travel by slow means and sit in an unheated building.
He was reverent toward human life. He provided that at his death his slaves should be set free. He had a love for his fellowman which caused him to be rightly known as "first in peace."

Book Review
The Baptist World, Mansfield, Mass., is published twice a month and contains religious editorials of a general nature with religious articles and church news of value.
SAVE WITH ICE
THE
Circleville Ice Co.
Island Road. Phone 284.

I shall never attempt to palliate my own foibles by exposing the error of another.—Washington.

FLEETWING GASOLINE
Always Gives You a Quick Start—Any Cold Morning.
Distributed By
THE CIRCLEVILLE OIL CO.
A Home Concern.

To the distinguished character of patriot add the more distinguished character of a Christian.—Washington.

"CAREFUL MOTHERS USE PASTEURIZED MILK."
—O—
CIRCLE CITY DAIRY
315 S. Pickaway St.

This Church Page Is Made Possible by the Following Circleville Concerns
TELL THEM YOU SAW THEIR AD ON THE CHURCH PAGE.
Barrere & Nickerson
Circle City Dairy
Circleville Oil Co.
Circleville Ice Co.
Enderlin Coal Co.
Geo. F. Grand-Girard
S. C. Grant
Hummel & Plum
Mason Bros.
Caddy Miller Hat Shop
E. S. Neuding
Sensenbrenner Watch Shop
C. F. Seitz
Southern Ohio Electric Co.
Third National Bank

World Religious News

The Religious Drama Council of the Greater New York Federation of Churches are sponsoring a play writing contest. They are offering a cash prize of $25 for the best one-act religious drama submitted before noon, April 16.
Plans are being made to observe October 6, 1934 as National Sunday School Teachers' Recognition Day with a mass meeting in every village, town and city in the country. Its purpose is to honor the two million teachers and officers who unpaid and unrecognized, have been one of the underlying influences of our time.
Handel's "Messiah" considered the foremost musical production of the Christian world, was composed in 23 days to get funds for a founding hospital in Germany. Germany did not receive Handel's work with enthusiasm. In fact it was not produced until 35 years after the composer's death and then in England.
The First Plymouth Congregational church of Lincoln, Neb. conducts special service which have proved of value such as singing carols before the homes of new born babes and singing carols before the homes of shut-ins at regular intervals.
The heads of 30 national communions, with an aggregate membership of over 27,000,000 have joined in issuing a call to spiritual advance with emphasis on a renewed spiritual life for the individual.
The fifth Baptist World Congress will be held in Berlin next August. Already names of delegates have been received from Great Britain, the United States, Canada, Spain, Italy, Yogo-Slavia, Rumania, Sweden, Finland, Estonia, Lithuania, Austria.

Home Education

Sermon Sentences
Life's darkest roads often lead to its brightest prospects.
All Christian attainments come as a result of service.
Deeds, not distances, make milestones on the heavenly road.
There is a deep spring of comfort in every desert of sorrow.
We cannot go further until we go deeper.—Stanley Jones.
Delays are never dangerous when we are angry.
A man's action is only a picture book of his creed.
Truth is ever fighting; it is finally defeated.

SAVE WITH ICE
THE
Circleville Ice Co.
Island Road. Phone 284.

I shall never attempt to palliate my own foibles by exposing the error of another.—Washington.

ANYTHING IN INSURANCE CONSULT HUMMEL & PLUM
The Service Agency
I. O. O. F. Bldg. Phone 143.

Merit rarely goes unrewarded.—Washington.
Example is more prevalent than precept.—Washington.

PROTECT YOUR VALUABLES
In a Safety Deposit Box. It Costs as Little as $3 a Year.
THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK
Where Service Predominates.

Don't Let Your Coal Cost too Much
Buy Now at Lowest Prices.
S. C. GRANT
Phone 461.
It is not uncommon in prosperous gales to forget that adverse winds blow.—Washington.

SILVERWARE SPECIAL
Wm. Rogers 12 Piece Set
$5.95
Less Than Half Price.
Sensenbrenner's WATCH SHOP
128 S. Court-st

TIGERS PROVE EASY FOR DELAWARE FIVE

Score Is 32-13 With Locals Getting Four Points In 3 Periods.

Circleville Tigers were easy, Friday evening, for the Delaware Central Buckeye leaguers on the college-town court. The score was 32-13.

The Red and Black quintet has now lost eight consecutive league games. Bexley comes here Wednesday evening and the locals go to Grandview next Friday to conclude the disastrous season.

The Red and Black squad was limited to four points in the first three periods, Henry and Speakman connecting for field goals, in the first half, while the Delaware outfit, coached by Ervie Carlisle, of Ohio Wesleyan fame, counted 19 points in the first half and eight more in the third period.

A scoreless third period was recorded for the Tigers.

McKINNIE SCORES
Again the Circlevillians were unable to stop McKinnie, big center. He tallied 13 points on five field goals and three free throws. Other Delaware scoring was evenly divided. Henry counted four and Leasure three points for the losers.

Buchanan, of Ohio State university, officiated.

The lineup:

Delaware—32	G	F	T
Hollister f	0	1	1
Thornton f	3	0	6
White f	1	1	3
Turney f	0	0	0
Meacham f	1	0	2
McKinnie c	5	13	13
Lebender c	0	0	0
Conrad g	0	0	0
Ruder g	0	0	0
Moses g	2	0	4
McBride g	1	1	3
	13	6	32

Circleville—13	G	F	T
Henry f	2	0	4
Plum	0	0	0
Leasure f	1	1	3
Coleman f	1	0	2
Grant c	1	0	2
Speakman g	1	0	2
Skaggs g	0	0	0
Packard g	0	0	0
	6	1	13

LOCAL BOWLERS IN STIFF MATCH

City Five Shoots 2709 But Loses When Jones, Washington, Gets Hot.

Circleville bowlers ran into some stiff opposition, Friday evening, in matches at Washington C. H. The Baker Specials lost 2405-2517 decision to the Washington C. H. Produce team, and the City Five was smacked down 2709-2975.

The feature of the latter contest was the bowling of Fred Jones, captain and anchor-man of his Jones Investment five. He grouped 223, 225, 279 for a beautiful bunch of 727 pins.

The 2709 total bowled by the City Five was probably the best a local quintet has scored.

The team scores were Riggins, 547; Senebrenner, 563; F. Lynch, 561; Boggs 448; Moyer, 590.

These four teams will again tangle the Bakers on March 2 and the City Five on March 9 on the local runways.

Another good exhibition has been scheduled for March 2 when the ladies of the Kleeve Funeral home meet the World's Worst here.

The first week's play in the second round of the ten pin league resulted in the Bakers taking two from the Coca Colas, Aces three from the Streaks, and Lefties two from the C. C. of A.

WHAT YOU SHOULD DEMAND FOR YOUR 5¢ IN 1933 CIGAR VALUE

More than 60% choice Havana filler—plus other choice imported tobacco... a taste and aroma found only in higher priced cigars... that's JOHN RUSKIN standard of value.

Don't be misled by old time brands "marked down to 5¢." JOHN RUSKIN is the only cigar giving you full 1933 value for your 5 cents.

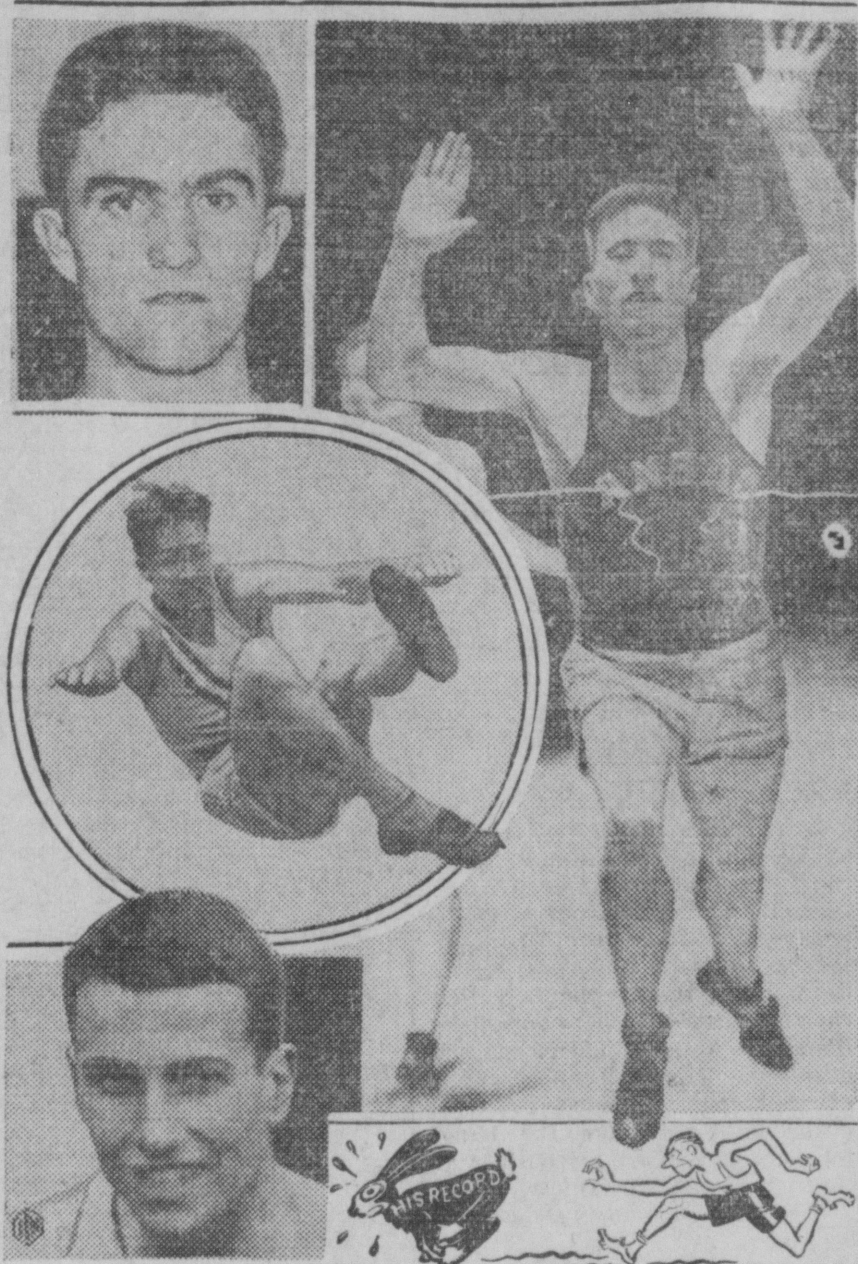

Try a few today. You will enjoy every puff.

Save The Bands They Are Redeemable

John Ruskin
BEST AND BIGGEST CIGAR VALUE

L. Lewis Cigar Mfg. Co., Mfrs., Newark, N. J.
"Freidenberg Cigar Co. Columbus Ohio, Distributors."

All Out for New Records

Records are expected to fall in forthcoming American indoor track and field championships, to be held in New York on February 24. Star milers expected to duel for supremacy are Glenn Cunningham (right), of Kansas, and George Bonthron (lower left), of Princeton. Joe McCluskey (top), of Fordham, will provide excitement in the 3,000-meter steeplechase, and George Spitz (circle), of N. Y. U., may better his high jump record.

PURDUE IN TEST

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—Purdue's campaign for an undisputed Western conference basketball championship and the hopes of Iowa to stay in the title race will be settled tonight when the two teams clash in foremost of four Big Ten battles.

It was Iowa that handed Purdue its only defeat of the conference season. The Hawkeyes, although still in the running, have been beaten twice. Thirteen thousand persons are expected to witness the duel at Iowa City climaxing the Hawkeye home schedule.

Other conference games this evening send the second place Illinois five against Wisconsin on the latter's floor; Michigan meets Ohio State at Columbus, and Indiana goes into action here against the local team Chicago team.

ABOUT RELIEF

(Continued From Page One)

works of the special taxation session will begin.

For three weeks, while the legislature toyed with stop-gap legislation which failed to materialize, the special commission has debated various measures designed to replace revenue the state will lose next year when the real estate tax limitation drops to 10 mills and to finance the schools and old age pensions.

All of the commission's sessions have been held behind closed doors, but there has been no indication that an agreement on a permanent tax program will be reached soon.

3 ALTERNATIVES

This lack of accord among the members has led many observers to believe the commission will send the three proposals of the state tax commission to the legislature on March 6, without unqualifiedly endorsing any one of them.

The suggested alternative proposals are: 1. A general sales tax. 2. A state income tax, and 3. A combination of the first two. In view of the fate met in the legislature by the special commission's stop-gap program, several members privately have voiced the opinion that the most specious course would be to leave it up to the assembly to select whichever proposal appeals most to it, as they expect it will do anyway.

Proposals of the special commission for temporary financial relief which the legislature either killed outright or permitted to expire without acting on them were: To permit subdivisions, by a majority vote, to levy 2 mills outside the limitation on real estate for current operating expenses.

To permit subdivisions to refund bonds and temporarily divert money from the sinking fund to meet current expenses.

To modernize the collection of delinquent taxes.

To permit county treasurers to act as temporary receivers for income producing property on which taxes are delinquent.

None of these bills passed in the Senate, while the House of Representatives adopted the bond refund and receivership bills after rejecting the emergency clauses.

Ancient civilizations didn't die. They just started a new city when the bond issue got too heavy.

About This And That

BY THE SECOND GUESSER

BASKETBALL fans were treated this afternoon when they made their way into the Circleville Athletic club gymnasium. Bleachers had been placed on both sides of the hall and permanent bleachers had been erected in the balcony. The seating capacity of the gymnasium is believed greatly benefited, and there is just one person responsible—that is Doc Blackburn, New Holland superintendent, and manager of the tournament. A vote of thanks also goes to the Chamber of Commerce for its financial effort to retain the tournament for Circleville.

Heat was turned into the gymnasium early this morning and Tom Drum, who heaves the coal into the C. A. C. furnaces, was kept busy during the day trying to keep the hall warm.

Again we read in the headlines of a morning newspaper that Ohio State university is favored to 'take' a Big Ten opponent. We've read it so often this year only to find Ohio State on the short end of the score at the end of the contest. We still believe Floyd Stahl will coach the Buckeye cagers next year.

County cage fans were aching to get a peep at Referee Kroger Babb, of Wilmington, when he appeared on the court this afternoon. They had read more about Babb through the columns of The Herald than of any other official who ever worked county games. Whether he knows it or whether he does not, Mr. Babb has a job on his hands pleasing all the cage fans who want their hopefuls to win.

We see by the papers that a three way tie exists in the Columbus high league, East, Central, and South since the Bengals defeated Central's Pirates, 32-23. Eppa Rixey, veteran left-hander, has retired from active duty with the Cincinnati Reds. Frank Wilton, with great hopes for Miami, again signs to coach the Redskins. Ohio State's swimming team of which George Collinsville, this city, is a member, was defeated, 55-26, at Ann Arbor, Friday. Marshall whips Miami, 31-23, and Ohio U. was defeated 34-25 by Marietta in an upset. Looks like Don Peden will have to relieve Butch Grover as cage coach, too.

Here are some scores: Chillicothe, 20; Athens, 14. Lancaster St. Mary, 26; Washington C. H., 14. Mt. Vernon, 37; Lancaster, 32. Canal Winchester, 32; New Albany, 18. Portsmouth, 29; Pomeroy, 18. Steubenville, 33; Wellsville, 32. Newark, 39; Zanesville, 35. Shelby, 26; Mansfield, 24. Massillon, 23; Canton, 19. Cambridge, 21; Coshocton, 15. Groveport, 25; Gahanna, 13. Westerville, 29; Grandview, 26.

the victory with O'Hara probably leading the attack. Gene Bach is Jackson's offensive threat.

Ashville, having defeated Monroe girls several weeks ago in an easy manner, are again favored to win. The condition of Lila Hiles, center-captain, may have something to do with the final outcome. Monroe has a strong team and might break out with a series of field goals. Superior experience and team-play are two vital points Mrs. Morrison's Ashville girls are believed to have the edge.

Anyway it's going to be a great tournament with better seating, and several other features including the season ticket plan adding to the tourney's certain success.

First Subway in N. Y. City
The first subway, in New York City, opened October 27, 1904.

Coiffure from Dim Past

Two views of the new coiffure which promises to become the rage with milady of fashion this year are shown by Princess Dolly Olskowsky (left) and Miss Betty Kipp (right), popular members of New York's society set. The "halo" coronet braid, which is copied from a style popular 5,000 years ago, is expected to usurp the place of the diamond tiara.

Turn of the Gold Tide

The first wave of the "yellow tide" of gold flowing back from Europe is shown arriving at New York as 224 cases, containing $13,000,000 worth of the precious metal, are unloaded from the liner Bremen. The reversal of gold flow is result of President Roosevelt's monetary policy.

SENATE

Continued From Page One

into the breach as a knight errant in its fight to reach the mail subsidy on the middle Transcontinental route from New York to the west coast.

In this capacity, the Colonel wrote his now celebrated telegram of protest to President Roosevelt.

LINE CONTINUING

Pan American, in the meantime, has suffered no impairment of constructive relations with the government. It is carrying on its work of flying mail and passengers through the high passes of Mexico, the Central American jungles, the Caribbean, the needle pointed peaks of the Andes, Alaska and China.

Important considerations, distinctive from those affecting the domestic air mail carriers, enter into the Pan American picture.

In Senate and House, efforts are being made to rally Republican forces behind Lindbergh for the fight against cancellation of the domestic air mail contracts.

KINGSTON

The regular covered-dish luncheon of the Philathea Sunday School class will be held at the country home of Mrs. Norman Pyle on Thursday, Feb. 2.

CHAPEL SERVICES

The weekly chapel service was held at the High School Wednesday morning with Miss Bernadine Featherholt presiding. The opening song was "Battle Hymn of Republic." Rev. V. C. Stump followed with the Scripture reading and prayer; song, "Tenting On The Old Camp Ground" by all, after which announcements were made by Prof. Shepard; Devotionals by Rev. Stump. The meeting closed with the song, "Yankee Doodle."

FEEDER'S DINNER AND SMOKER

One hundred and forty customers and friends of the firm were entertained to a feeder's dinner and smoker Tuesday evening in the community room of the M. E. Church by R. H. Brundige, manager of the estate of Jesse Brundige, in the interest of better feeding conditions and returns to the feeder. The principal speaker of the evening was Dr. E. E. Clore, eminent veterinarian, of Indiana. The subject of his address was "Live Stock Diseases and Feeding."

The delicious dinner consisted of roast pork, dressing, mashed potatoes, creamed peas, cold slaw, hot rolls, apple pie and coffee, and was prepared by the members of the Ne Plus Ultra Sunday School class. The dinner was much enjoyed and everybody reported having a good time.

LADIES' AID MEETING

The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herman LeMar. The president, Miss Mary L. Harpster, presided and opened the meeting at 2:00 o'clock by all singing the hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers." Devotional service that was very interesting was in charge of Mrs. V. C. Stump who followed with prayer; after singing hymn, "God Will Take Care

1934 Planetary Guide

A new idea evolved from the old science of Astrology. Don't blunder through the new year. All information given you from a chart of the planetary conditions on the day of your birth. No two alike, unless born the same day. Absolutely individual—no printed forms.

Must have your day of month and year of birth. Hour also, if known.

Learn the days when you will have the best chances for success. Also good days for planting, first six months of year.

All For $1.00.

R. Fredric Kane

ASTROLOGER

69 E. Welch Ave.
COLUMBUS, OHIO.

MARKETS

CREAM 21 cents.
EGGS 15 cents.

LIVESTOCK MARKETS

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—Hog receipts, 14,000, steady. Mediums 4.55.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 17.—Hog receipts 1600, 5 lower to steady. Mediums 150 to 210, 5.00 to 5.10.

Sows 3.50. Calves 8.00. Lambs 10.00.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 17.—Hog receipts 2,000, slow to steady. Mediums 160 to 250, 5.00.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—Grain futures were steady to easy at the opening today. Wheat was 1-8 to 3-8 cent down, corn unchanged to 1-8 cent off and oats unchanged to 1-4 cent lower.

PUBLIC SALE!

WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION, ONE MILE EAST OF DARBYVILLE

On South Bloomfield Pike, 12 Miles West of Circleville

TUESDAY, FEB. 27

Commencing at 11 O'clock

3 HEAD OF HORSES

Two Saddle Horses. One Work Horse

56 HEAD OF SHORTHORN CATTLE

Three cows with calves by side; 14 cows bred to Registered Shorthorn Bull, will have calves this spring; 7 yearling heifers; 7 fat cows, wt. 1200; 5 steers, wt. 700 to 1000 lbs.; 6 fat calves, wt. 700; 6 fat calves, wt. 500; 8 calves wt. 300 to 400; 1 Jersey cow giving 3 gallons milk a day; one Registered Shorthorn Bull 3 years old, will furnish papers.

118 HEAD OF SHEEP

Ramblatts—Will lamb in April

60 TONS OF HAY

60 Tons of Baled Alfalfa, Extra Good.

100 CHICKENS

Pure-bred Rhode Island Reds.

TERMS CASH.

W. S. CARPENTER ESTATE

M. S. Oswald, Auctioneer.

W. O. Flowers, Clerk.

Lunch will be served on the ground by Ladies' Aid Society.

HERALD Want Ads

Only—

9c PER LINE

BUY—SELL—TRADE
Through This Effective Medium!

This Ad Costs Only
54c for 3 days

This Ad Costs Only
$1.08 for 6 Days

Real Estate For Rent

HOUSE FOR RENT—6 Rooms and bath. Inquire at 410 N. Spring-st.

Automobiles For Sale

FOR SALE—1932 Chevrolet Coupe, in good condition—Will take your car on deal. Inquire at the Motor-Mart.

Each Ad Minimum 27c - 3 Times-Price of 2
6 Times Price of 3

The Circleville Herald
Consolidation of The Circleville Herald, established in 1883, and the Daily Union-Herald, established in 1884.
Published evenings, except Sunday, by THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY.
Karl J. Heremann, Manager.
A DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER

MEMBER
Ohio Newspaper Association
International News Service
King Features Syndicate
Ohio Select List
NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
JOHN W. CULLEN CO.
No. 8 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.
501 Fifth Ave., New York City
General Motors Building, Detroit, Michigan.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By carrier in Circleville, 15c per week, $6 per year, in advance. By mail, Pickaway County and Circleville, 20c per week, $10 per year, in advance. Outside Ohio, 25c per week, $12.50 per year, in advance. Postage paid at Circleville, Ohio.
Entered at Postoffice at Circleville as Second Class Matter.

Banks and Credit

THE charge made by the chairman of the Reconstruction Finance corporation that banks are not doing their part in helping the nation out of the depression needed to be examined very carefully before being accepted as true.

The probability is that careful examination will convince the thoughtful student that the charge has little solid foundation.

Chairman Jones, in his New York speech, found fault with the credit policies of banks. Banks, he said, were leaning backward too far in their efforts to make only sound loans. A more liberal policy, he thought, could be adopted without endangering their assets. He disclaimed any intention to suggest that "loose credit policies" be adopted, but was emphatic in accusing bankers of being too strict now with respect to loans. By implication, at least, he indicated that unless present policies were modified government banking might replace private banking.

Nobody realizes the danger in unsound loans more than the bankers who succeeded in bringing their institutions safely through the 1933 banking crisis. It is but natural that they should be more determined than ever to be on their guard in the future. It is not alone their own interests they are safeguarding. They are protecting the interests of the thousands of depositors who have entrusted their funds to them. At the same time, there rests upon them as representing the banking business the task of regaining public confidence after last year's disastrous experience.

They can not perform these duties and be true to their trust if they make unsound loans. Most banks are bulging with surplus funds. They are losing money as long as these funds lie idle. They may place them in government securities but the returns are far under what they would be if they were used in making private commercial loans.

The truth of the situation is that industry is not expanding yet to an extent where there is a great demand for loans that can be repaid as sound. The law of supply and demand operates in the banking field no less than in other realms of industry and commerce.

According to some, it seems that what the country needs is a good dollar-a-quart brand of whiskey.

True to America

IN agreeing on President Roosevelt as arbiter in an effort to settle their century-old boundary dispute, Peru and Ecuador seem to reflect an improvement in the relations between the United States and Latin America.

The president is to be called on to decide the issue in the event two negotiating commissions being sent to Washington fail to reach a settlement.

The dispute had its inception in 1830 when Ecuador became a separate state. It relates to territory around the headwaters of the Amazon river, lying between the Morana, Marañon, Napo and Pichincha rivers. In 1910, the controversy was submitted to the king of Spain for arbitration. The Spanish ruler, however, withdrew without making an award. In 1924, a protocol was drawn up providing for the sending of commissions to Washington to discuss the adjustment of the dispute, and in the event of disagreement, leaving to the American president arbitral decision of the points involved. Until recently, however, no action in carrying out the terms of the protocol had been taken.

Settlement of the dispute would cure a threatening situation in Latin America, and the part taken in it by the United States should help this country in that part of the world. This is sufficient reason for hoping for success of the latest move.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR INVITED

Please write plainly. Please sign your name and address as an evidence of good faith. Your name won't be published, we'll use pen names, on general letters, if you insist. Letters criticizing or attacking individuals or organizations won't be printed unless the writers are willing to let their real names appear.

"KNAVE'S GIRL"
By JOAN CLAYTON
COPYRIGHT 1932, KING FEATURES SYNDICATE, INC.

SYNOPSIS

Young and lovely Patricia Warren employs the card skill she inherited from her late father to help support her stepmother and step-sisters by playing at bridge parties given by the wealthy Mrs. Eileen Syrett. Pat receives fifty cents an hour. She declines the offer of Julian Haverholt, noted bridge expert, to make her his secretary and partner when, after taking her home, he tries to make love to her. Her nagging stepmother is furious at Pat's refusal. Later, at Mrs. Syrett's home, Patricia meets Clark Tracy, her ideal, only to learn he is engaged to the socially prominent Marthe March. Pat is heartbroken. New Year's Eve, Bill McGee, a small-time politician and thug, insists that Pat accompany him to a dance. They stop at a rival racketeer's place where Bill demands settlement for infringement on his territory. He is shot and Pat flees in terror. Arriving home, Pat is put out by her stepmother who says the police are looking for her. Leda Frayne, a friend, offers Pat a home with her. She suggests that Pat get in touch with Haverholt.

CHAPTER EIGHT

"I don't see how you can advise that," said Patricia, hurt. "Particularly after what Phil has said about people who play cards." "Phil and I are two different people. We disagree there. Call up Julian Haverholt, Patricia. You're old enough, smart enough, pretty enough to take care of yourself. You'd have him wound around your little finger inside two days. You could make him pull you to the top; you could be famous in a year. Contract bridge is the swiftest racket going these days. Go ahead, Pat."

"No." "You'll never find a job otherwise," predicted the older girl. After two weeks of job hunting Patricia herself sometimes wavered. Every morning she went out in borrowed clothes; every night she returned on borrowed carfare. She lived from day to day. Some day she would get a job, must get a job. The situation now was impossible.

Phil was a constant visitor to the apartment. He and Patricia tore at each other's nerves, were barely on speaking terms. The girl was too young to make allowances for the man; he was too intolerant to make allowances for her. Endlessly Leda played peacemaker. But sometimes Patricia, wretched at the impasse of her own affairs, wondered if her friend did not tire of the role. Two people, both jobless, Phil had lost his position as a telephone lineman months before, dependent upon the strength and generosity of another—it was not right, Patricia knew that. But she was helpless.

Then came the afternoon she dropped into the Hotel Beaucarne. She seemed very casual as she strolled through the lobby and turned off into a pleasant chintz hung room where several dozen people were playing cards. She was not casual. She had come deliberately. She had come to gamble.

She paused at the desk where an attendant was seated. Her heart was beating fast. Her hands were icy. When the attendant looked up, she said, "I'd like a game of contract."

"For stakes?" "Yes, please." "Is a cent a point all right?" "Yes."

At a cent a point a player of average abilities might lose ten dollars on a single hand. Patricia had exactly five dollars borrowed that morning from Leda. But she did not intend to lose. She paid the one dollar fee and watched the attendant cross the room to a table where three men sat.

To the nervous, anxious girl it was apparent that two of the men, assisted by the attendant, were arguing with the third. She guessed why. The fat, short man, his round face red now with annoyance, did not wish to risk an unknown as a partner. Eventually though he shrugged and gave up. A moment later the attendant beckoned and Patricia threaded her way past the concentrated players toward that table. She acknowledged introductions to Sam Gillis and Arthur Ray, her opponents, and to Wally Edge, her partner. The latter was still sulking.

"What system do you play?" he asked shortly. "Any system," Patricia informed him coolly. Edge looked at her with sharpened interest, unsure whether she was posing or telling the simple truth. At the end of the first rubber he was sure. His abrupt respect was almost funny. Patricia waved aside his lavish compliments and settled to the serious business of playing bridge.

She won just as she had thought she would win. She had not thought she would win thirty-five dollars. The sum seemed stupendous. In a haze of incredulous joy she heard Edge urge her to return the next day, heard herself promise. She sped from the hotel. She ran all the way to Leda's, burst in breathless, so excited she could scarcely speak. Leda and Phil were at the table.

"We waited dinner," Leda began in a tone of mild reproach. "Where have you been?" "I've been winning at bridge," cried Patricia joyfully. "Look, look will you, at what I've won." She displayed a handful of bills. Leda sprang from the table, nearly as excited as her friend.

Neither of the girls noticed Phil. His face was a thundercloud. In the midst of the feminine jubilation he pushed back his chair, rose. "You can take your money and get out," he shouted at Patricia. "I won't have my fiancée living with a common gambler!"

There was a moment of stunned silence. Patricia's face was white. Her hands, still full of bills, dropped. Even Phil felt that he had gone too far. He sat down heavily. "Phil's crazy," Leda declared at length. Turning on him, she said with an undercurrent of sharpness, "Tell Patricia you're sorry."

"Oh, all right," he capitulated ungraciously. "I'm sorry, but you'll never convince me that gambling is honest."

If Leda had been content to accept the grudging apology the air might have cleared. Leda wasn't. She added tartly, "You're so narrow minded, Phil, I wonder you weren't born on the Ark."

"Well," said the man on an explosive breath, "so you think Patricia's done something cute. Do you really intend to back her up in this?"

"I don't need anyone's backing," Patricia interposed coldly. The stricken look had left her now. She continued steadily, "I know what I consider right and wrong. I don't interfere with your ideas, Phil. Why not allow me the same privilege?"

"Go ahead then," he said angrily. "You can go to the dogs for all of me just as your father did before you."

"Keep my father out of this!" "Now Pat—now Phil," Leda looked helplessly from one to the other.

Patricia straightened. Her eyes were very bright. She divided the bills she had displayed so gleefully, placed twenty-five dollars on the table, tucked ten into her pocketbook. All this in silence.

She said then, quietly, to Leda, "I'm going to find another place to live. It's evident that Phil and I don't see things eye to eye." Leda did not argue. It was no use. She did say, "But, honey, don't bother paying me now. You'll need more than ten dollars."

Phil roused. He said nastily, "Go on, take it all. Leda doesn't want to be paid in that kind of money."

"I suppose you think it's tainted," Patricia suggested ironically. "That's exactly what I think."

"Well, I don't," Leda assured him airily. His objection settled the matter for her. She took the money. Later at the door, when he was not watching, she attempted to return it. Patricia refused. She tried to thank Leda for all her kindness but the other brusquely refused to listen. The two girls kissed and parted. They understood each other. Both of them realized that men could be pushed just so far and no farther. Both of them knew that in the long run Leda's friend would always be sacrificed to her sweet heart. Phil might be domineering, arrogant and intolerant; Patricia might have a dozen times his brains and charm; but Leda, who loved them both, must, in the very nature of things, side ultimately with the man.

On a worldly capital of ten dollars, Patricia went off to hunt a room. For five dollars a week she did not find a palace. But a fifth floor hall bedroom with a narrow iron cot and peeling chest of drawers at least offered privacy. Patricia was satisfied. She had lived in worse places.

Next afternoon, promptly at three o'clock, she returned to the Hotel Beaucarne. Wally Edge, her partner of the day before, was on the look-out for her. He greeted her effusively and then to her surprise he drew her from the card room to the lobby adjoining.

"I've got a couple of lambs in tow," he announced in surreptitious glee. "Did you see them by the door? Those birds don't know a hand from a foot. All we've got to do is get our signals straightened out beforehand and we're in clover."

Patricia regarded the man's jubilant round face with disfavor. "I'm afraid I don't understand," she said coldly.

"Don't kid me, sister. You don't play bridge for fun any more than I do. I watched you yesterday. You were out to win."

"Certainly I was out to win fairly."

The faint emphasis on the last word appeared to disconcert the man. Wally Edge was a card sharp of sorts. His bridge was skillful but it depended more on shrewdness than on ethics. He was careful though.

He said now, almost haughtily, "Are you inferring that I hoped to win unfairly?"

"I was inferring nothing at all," Patricia informed him smoothly. Widening her eyes a trifle, she added, "Just for a minute I was afraid you meant to propose some private understanding between us. I see now how wrong I was."

She did not intend to make an enemy of this man if it were possible to avoid it. In her situation she could not afford to make enemies. Momentarily Edge wavered. Inwardly he was furious. But after all Patricia had saved his face, left him a loophole of escape. He took it.

He said with assumed heartiness, "I should say you were wrong. I wouldn't put up with anything like that, never have. That kind of thing doesn't pay. All I meant was that we should bid more flexibly than we did yesterday, especially on third hand. I believe in opening third hand light."

"Then it's all right," said Patricia, innocently relieved.

(To Be Continued)

© 1932, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Harelip Not Hereditary Defect

And Prompt Operation Will Correct It in Most Cases

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M.D.
United States senator from New York
Former Commissioner of Health,
New York City

CONTRARY to a popular belief, "harelip" is not an hereditary defect. It is congenital, of course, resulting from incomplete joining together of certain structures of the face. It is caused by some fault in development of the body before birth. But one case in a family does not mean that others will be afflicted in the same way. Occasionally harelip is accompanied by a similar defect of the hard palate. When the tissues here fail to join, there is left a cleft or fissure in the middle of the roof of the mouth. This is the deformity spoken of as "cleft palate." It is not as common as harelip, but is occasionally seen in the infant who is also the victim of harelip.

A Handicap to Children
Unfortunately many parents hesitate to allow such a child to be operated upon. They fail to realize that it is only by means of surgery that this unpleasant deformity can be corrected.

Neglect of this condition in infancy may lead to marked under-nourishment of the child. Whenever it happens there is a decrease in the normal resistance against contagious diseases. The baby has difficulty in nursing and consequently fails to receive proper quantities of food.

It is true that there are some children who suffer from this ailment yet have no difficulty in obtaining sufficient nourishment. But no one will deny that a child who is afflicted with either harelip or cleft palate enters the world with a marked handicap. He is sure to be the victim of many hours of unnecessary anguish.

Operation Perfected Now
Within recent years tremendous strides have been made in the perfection of this operation. No longer is it a serious and dreaded ordeal. I am glad to say that in most instances the results of the operation are more than gratifying. Often it is scarcely possible to detect any sign or trace of the scar.

The operation should be performed as soon as possible. The time most ideal for the operation should be determined by the physician. He will take into consideration the age, weight and general health of the child. The operation must be performed in early childhood since once the bones have set and become hard it is almost impossible to correct the deformity.

Every parent should take advantage of all that modern medicine and surgery offer for the correction of such birth defects as cleft palate and harelip.

Answers to Health Queries
I. A. Q.—I was afflicted with infantile paralysis when two years old—I am now twenty-one. I have been told that I will not be able to walk when older unless my leg is massaged and I am worried. Where could I go for advice and treatment?

A.—Apply at one of the hospitals where they will be glad to go into detail along these lines.
(Copyright, 1933, K. F. S., Inc.)

At the Cliftona
In "Son of a Sailor," Joe E. Brown's latest laugh-feast, which will open Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre, the comedian plays the part of a bragging glib, whose quick wits serve him when his boasting gets him into trouble. Pitted against a tough hombre in the naval boxing championships, Joe is forced to resort to a couple of tricks not included in the Marquis of Queensburg rules.

But Joe's antics in the prize-fight sequence produce just one of the hilarious sequences in a comedy hailed as one of the funniest the First National comic has made. A fine cast including Jean Muir, Frank McHugh, Thelma Todd, Noel Francis and many others support Joe E. Brown in "Son of a Sailor."

At the Grand
The "Battle of the Ages" is being fought at the Grand Theatre this week. Twenty-five tough mugs, selected on the basis of their ability to "take it" and like it, are pitted against 25 ten-minute eggs who qualified to "take it" and "give it." It is one of the grandest-free-for-all ever staged in films. It is one of the thrilling sequences of the Al Rockett production, "Hoopia," starring Clara Bow, and the scene has to do with a battle royal between townsfolk and the employees of a carnival.

The carnival—as well as numerous mugs—are wrecked.

Answers to Health Queries
I. A. Q.—I was afflicted with infantile paralysis when two years old—I am now twenty-one. I have been told that I will not be able to walk when older unless my leg is massaged and I am worried. Where could I go for advice and treatment?

A.—Apply at one of the hospitals where they will be glad to go into detail along these lines.
(Copyright, 1933, K. F. S., Inc.)

At the Cliftona
In "Son of a Sailor," Joe E. Brown's latest laugh-feast, which will open Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre, the comedian plays the part of a bragging glib, whose quick wits serve him when his boasting gets him into trouble. Pitted against a tough hombre in the naval boxing championships, Joe is forced to resort to a couple of tricks not included in the Marquis of Queensburg rules.

But Joe's antics in the prize-fight sequence produce just one of the hilarious sequences in a comedy hailed as one of the funniest the First National comic has made. A fine cast including Jean Muir, Frank McHugh, Thelma Todd, Noel Francis and many others support Joe E. Brown in "Son of a Sailor."

At the Grand
The "Battle of the Ages" is being fought at the Grand Theatre this week. Twenty-five tough mugs, selected on the basis of their ability to "take it" and like it, are pitted against 25 ten-minute eggs who qualified to "take it" and "give it." It is one of the grandest-free-for-all ever staged in films. It is one of the thrilling sequences of the Al Rockett production, "Hoopia," starring Clara Bow, and the scene has to do with a battle royal between townsfolk and the employees of a carnival.

The carnival—as well as numerous mugs—are wrecked.

Answers to Health Queries
I. A. Q.—I was afflicted with infantile paralysis when two years old—I am now twenty-one. I have been told that I will not be able to walk when older unless my leg is massaged and I am worried. Where could I go for advice and treatment?

A.—Apply at one of the hospitals where they will be glad to go into detail along these lines.
(Copyright, 1933, K. F. S., Inc.)

At the Cliftona
In "Son of a Sailor," Joe E. Brown's latest laugh-feast, which will open Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre, the comedian plays the part of a bragging glib, whose quick wits serve him when his boasting gets him into trouble. Pitted against a tough hombre in the naval boxing championships, Joe is forced to resort to a couple of tricks not included in the Marquis of Queensburg rules.

But Joe's antics in the prize-fight sequence produce just one of the hilarious sequences in a comedy hailed as one of the funniest the First National comic has made. A fine cast including Jean Muir, Frank McHugh, Thelma Todd, Noel Francis and many others support Joe E. Brown in "Son of a Sailor."

At the Grand
The "Battle of the Ages" is being fought at the Grand Theatre this week. Twenty-five tough mugs, selected on the basis of their ability to "take it" and like it, are pitted against 25 ten-minute eggs who qualified to "take it" and "give it." It is one of the grandest-free-for-all ever staged in films. It is one of the thrilling sequences of the Al Rockett production, "Hoopia," starring Clara Bow, and the scene has to do with a battle royal between townsfolk and the employees of a carnival.

MOVIES

AT THE GRAND
The "Battle of the Ages" is being fought at the Grand Theatre this week. Twenty-five tough mugs, selected on the basis of their ability to "take it" and like it, are pitted against 25 ten-minute eggs who qualified to "take it" and "give it." It is one of the grandest-free-for-all ever staged in films. It is one of the thrilling sequences of the Al Rockett production, "Hoopia," starring Clara Bow, and the scene has to do with a battle royal between townsfolk and the employees of a carnival.

The carnival—as well as numerous mugs—are wrecked.

At the Cliftona
In "Son of a Sailor," Joe E. Brown's latest laugh-feast, which will open Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre, the comedian plays the part of a bragging glib, whose quick wits serve him when his boasting gets him into trouble. Pitted against a tough hombre in the naval boxing championships, Joe is forced to resort to a couple of tricks not included in the Marquis of Queensburg rules.

But Joe's antics in the prize-fight sequence produce just one of the hilarious sequences in a comedy hailed as one of the funniest the First National comic has made. A fine cast including Jean Muir, Frank McHugh, Thelma Todd, Noel Francis and many others support Joe E. Brown in "Son of a Sailor."

At the Grand
The "Battle of the Ages" is being fought at the Grand Theatre this week. Twenty-five tough mugs, selected on the basis of their ability to "take it" and like it, are pitted against 25 ten-minute eggs who qualified to "take it" and "give it." It is one of the grandest-free-for-all ever staged in films. It is one of the thrilling sequences of the Al Rockett production, "Hoopia," starring Clara Bow, and the scene has to do with a battle royal between townsfolk and the employees of a carnival.

The carnival—as well as numerous mugs—are wrecked.

At the Cliftona
In "Son of a Sailor," Joe E. Brown's latest laugh-feast, which will open Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre, the comedian plays the part of a bragging glib, whose quick wits serve him when his boasting gets him into trouble. Pitted against a tough hombre in the naval boxing championships, Joe is forced to resort to a couple of tricks not included in the Marquis of Queensburg rules.

But Joe's antics in the prize-fight sequence produce just one of the hilarious sequences in a comedy hailed as one of the funniest the First National comic has made. A fine cast including Jean Muir, Frank McHugh, Thelma Todd, Noel Francis and many others support Joe E. Brown in "Son of a Sailor."

At the Grand
The "Battle of the Ages" is being fought at the Grand Theatre this week. Twenty-five tough mugs, selected on the basis of their ability to "take it" and like it, are pitted against 25 ten-minute eggs who qualified to "take it" and "give it." It is one of the grandest-free-for-all ever staged in films. It is one of the thrilling sequences of the Al Rockett production, "Hoopia," starring Clara Bow, and the scene has to do with a battle royal between townsfolk and the employees of a carnival.

The carnival—as well as numerous mugs—are wrecked.

At the Cliftona
In "Son of a Sailor," Joe E. Brown's latest laugh-feast, which will open Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre, the comedian plays the part of a bragging glib, whose quick wits serve him when his boasting gets him into trouble. Pitted against a tough hombre in the naval boxing championships, Joe is forced to resort to a couple of tricks not included in the Marquis of Queensburg rules.

But Joe's antics in the prize-fight sequence produce just one of the hilarious sequences in a comedy hailed as one of the funniest the First National comic has made. A fine cast including Jean Muir, Frank McHugh, Thelma Todd, Noel Francis and many others support Joe E. Brown in "Son of a Sailor."

At the Grand
The "Battle of the Ages" is being fought at the Grand Theatre this week. Twenty-five tough mugs, selected on the basis of their ability to "take it" and like it, are pitted against 25 ten-minute eggs who qualified to "take it" and "give it." It is one of the grandest-free-for-all ever staged in films. It is one of the thrilling sequences of the Al Rockett production, "Hoopia," starring Clara Bow, and the scene has to do with a battle royal between townsfolk and the employees of a carnival.

The carnival—as well as numerous mugs—are wrecked.

At the Cliftona
In "Son of a Sailor," Joe E. Brown's latest laugh-feast, which will open Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre, the comedian plays the part of a bragging glib, whose quick wits serve him when his boasting gets him into trouble. Pitted against a tough hombre in the naval boxing championships, Joe is forced to resort to a couple of tricks not included in the Marquis of Queensburg rules.

But Joe's antics in the prize-fight sequence produce just one of the hilarious sequences in a comedy hailed as one of the funniest the First National comic has made. A fine cast including Jean Muir, Frank McHugh, Thelma Todd, Noel Francis and many others support Joe E. Brown in "Son of a Sailor."

At the Grand
The "Battle of the Ages" is being fought at the Grand Theatre this week. Twenty-five tough mugs, selected on the basis of their ability to "take it" and like it, are pitted against 25 ten-minute eggs who qualified to "take it" and "give it." It is one of the grandest-free-for-all ever staged in films. It is one of the thrilling sequences of the Al Rockett production, "Hoopia," starring Clara Bow, and the scene has to do with a battle royal between townsfolk and the employees of a carnival.

The carnival—as well as numerous mugs—are wrecked.

At the Cliftona
In "Son of a Sailor," Joe E. Brown's latest laugh-feast, which will open Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre, the comedian plays the part of a bragging glib, whose quick wits serve him when his boasting gets him into trouble. Pitted against a tough hombre in the naval boxing championships, Joe is forced to resort to a couple of tricks not included in the Marquis of Queensburg rules.

But Joe's antics in the prize-fight sequence produce just one of the hilarious sequences in a comedy hailed as one of the funniest the First National comic has made. A fine cast including Jean Muir, Frank McHugh, Thelma Todd, Noel Francis and many others support Joe E. Brown in "Son of a Sailor."

The Long Trek Begins

MOVIES

AT THE GRAND
The "Battle of the Ages" is being fought at the Grand Theatre this week. Twenty-five tough mugs, selected on the basis of their ability to "take it" and like it, are pitted against 25 ten-minute eggs who qualified to "take it" and "give it." It is one of the grandest-free-for-all ever staged in films. It is one of the thrilling sequences of the Al Rockett production, "Hoopia," starring Clara Bow, and the scene has to do with a battle royal between townsfolk and the employees of a carnival.

The carnival—as well as numerous mugs—are wrecked.

At the Cliftona
In "Son of a Sailor," Joe E. Brown's latest laugh-feast, which will open Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre, the comedian plays the part of a bragging glib, whose quick wits serve him when his boasting gets him into trouble. Pitted against a tough hombre in the naval boxing championships, Joe is forced to resort to a couple of tricks not included in the Marquis of Queensburg rules.

But Joe's antics in the prize-fight sequence produce just one of the hilarious sequences in a comedy hailed as one of the funniest the First National comic has made. A fine cast including Jean Muir, Frank McHugh, Thelma Todd, Noel Francis and many others support Joe E. Brown in "Son of a Sailor."

At the Grand
The "Battle of the Ages" is being fought at the Grand Theatre this week. Twenty-five tough mugs, selected on the basis of their ability to "take it" and like it, are pitted against 25 ten-minute eggs who qualified to "take it" and "give it." It is one of the grandest-free-for-all ever staged in films. It is one of the thrilling sequences of the Al Rockett production, "Hoopia," starring Clara Bow, and the scene has to do with a battle royal between townsfolk and the employees of a carnival.

The carnival—as well as numerous mugs—are wrecked.

At the Cliftona
In "Son of a Sailor," Joe E. Brown's latest laugh-feast, which will open Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre, the comedian plays the part of a bragging glib, whose quick wits serve him when his boasting gets him into trouble. Pitted against a tough hombre in the naval boxing championships, Joe is forced to resort to a couple of tricks not included in the Marquis of Queensburg rules.

But Joe's antics in the prize-fight sequence produce just one of the hilarious sequences in a comedy hailed as one of the funniest the First National comic has made. A fine cast including Jean Muir, Frank McHugh, Thelma Todd, Noel Francis and many others support Joe E. Brown in "Son of a Sailor."

At the Grand
The "Battle of the Ages" is being fought at the Grand Theatre this week. Twenty-five tough mugs, selected on the basis of their ability to "take it" and like it, are pitted against 25 ten-minute eggs who qualified to "take it" and "give it." It is one of the grandest-free-for-all ever staged in films. It is one of the thrilling sequences of the Al Rockett production, "Hoopia," starring Clara Bow, and the scene has to do with a battle royal between townsfolk and the employees of a carnival.

The carnival—as well as numerous mugs—are wrecked.

At the Cliftona
In "Son of a Sailor," Joe E. Brown's latest laugh-feast, which will open Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre, the comedian plays the part of a bragging glib, whose quick wits serve him when his boasting gets him into trouble. Pitted against a tough hombre in the naval boxing championships, Joe is forced to resort to a couple of tricks not included in the Marquis of Queensburg rules.

But Joe's antics in the prize-fight sequence produce just one of the hilarious sequences in a comedy hailed as one of the funniest the First National comic has made. A fine cast including Jean Muir, Frank McHugh, Thelma Todd, Noel Francis and many others support Joe E. Brown in "Son of a Sailor."

At the Grand
The "Battle of the Ages" is being fought at the Grand Theatre this week. Twenty-five tough mugs, selected on the basis of their ability to "take it" and like it, are pitted against 25 ten-minute eggs who qualified to "take it" and "give it." It is one of the grandest-free-for-all ever staged in films. It is one of the thrilling sequences of the Al Rockett production, "Hoopia," starring Clara Bow, and the scene has to do with a battle royal between townsfolk and the employees of a carnival.

The carnival—as well as numerous mugs—are wrecked.

At the Cliftona
In "Son of a Sailor," Joe E. Brown's latest laugh-feast, which will open Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre, the comedian plays the part of a bragging glib, whose quick wits serve him when his boasting gets him into trouble. Pitted against a tough hombre in the naval boxing championships, Joe is forced to resort to a couple of tricks not included in the Marquis of Queensburg rules.

But Joe's antics in the prize-fight sequence produce just one of the hilarious sequences in a comedy hailed as one of the funniest the First National comic has made. A fine cast including Jean Muir, Frank McHugh, Thelma Todd, Noel Francis and many others support Joe E. Brown in "Son of a Sailor."

At the Grand
The "Battle of the Ages" is being fought at the Grand Theatre this week. Twenty-five tough mugs, selected on the basis of their ability to "

Saturday, February 17, 1934

THE CIRCLEVILLE (OHIO) HERALD

You'll find it in the CLASSIFIED

The CIRCLEVILLE HERALD and THE UNION-HERALD

Information
All ads are restricted to their proper classification and to the respective Circleville Herald style of type. The publishers reserve the right to edit or reject any classified advertising copy.

Advertising orders for irregular insertions take the one-time rate. No ad is taken for less than a basis of three lines. Count five average words to the line on paid advertisements.

Charged ads will be received by telephone, and if paid at Circleville Herald office within six days from the first day of insertion cash rate will be allowed.

Ads ordered for three or seven times and stopped before expiration will be charged for only the number of times the ad appeared and adjustment made at the rate earned. All ads ordered seven times will be published in the Union-Herald (Weekly) and will be counted as one insertion, with three-time ads ordered printed in Tuesday's or Wednesday's issues of the Daily.

Ads received up to 10:30 A. M. will be inserted the same day. A charge of 50 cents is made for publishing Cards of Thanks. Special rates for yearly advertising upon request.

Careful attention given to mail orders.

Prices per line for consecutive insertions.
One time 10¢ per line.
Three times 25¢ per line.
Seven times 35¢ per line.
Prices on Display Classified furnished on request.

The publishers will be responsible only for one incorrect insertion of any advertisement.

Announcements

7—Personal Notices

JUANITA CANOE—Spiritual reader "Who advises in all your affairs." 126 E. Franklin-st., Circleville, Daily from 10 to 12 a. m. 6 to 10 p. m. —7

Business Service

18—Business Service Offered

PAPER HANGING—Work guaranteed, 10¢ single roll. Samples. Phone 8311. E. F. Traub. —18

Employment

33—Help Wanted—Male

MAN WANTED—Chance for immediate steady income selling nationally known Super-Refined Motor Oils, under new Insured Lubrication Plan, to farmers, auto and truck owners on easy credit terms. No experience or investment required. Write Central Petroleum Co., 6420 Standard Bank Bldg., Cleveland, Ohio.

EARN EXTRA MONEY copying Names, Addresses for mail order firms. Home spare time, experience unnecessary. Write for information, Circle Advertising, 401 Broadway, New York.

Livestock

49—Poultry and Supplies

BABY CHICKS—From improved blood-tested flocks. Using the Whole Blood Strained Antigen method for B. W. D. (Pullorum Disease). Special discount if ordered now for delivery anytime. Open Sundays. So. Ohio Hatchery, Phone 55. —49

BABY CHICKS—All heavy breeds $7.50 per hundred. Large type white leghorns $7 per hundred. All stock blood tested for B. W. D., stained antigen method. Let us do your custom hatching. Croman's Poultry Farm and Hatchery, Phone 1834. —49

FOR SALE—Boston Bull puppies beautifully marked. Canaries, guaranteed singers. Price reasonable. Inq. 898 S. Court-st. —47

Merchandise

51—Articles for Sale

FOR SALE—Kristee's rubber goods; Christy's toilet and cleaning articles, NRA products. Phone 327.

61—Machinery & Tools

THE NEW MAYTAG $59.50, $1.25 per week. Pettit Tire & Battery Shop. —61

63—Seeds, Plants, Flowers

SEEDS—SEEDS—SEEDS PRICED RIGHT and best quality. See S. M. Allen, Kinderhook or Phone 2031, Williamsport-ex. —5H

Real Estate For Rent

77—Houses for Rent

7 ROOM Stucco single with bath. Park Place, $20. Mack Parrett, Jr. Phone 7 or 303. —77

63—Rooms Without Board

FOR RENT—2 sleeping rooms in private family, centrally located. Phone 1311.

81—Wanted to Rent

WANTED TO RENT—A 3 or 4 room furnished or semi-furnished apt. or small furnished house. Prefer central location. Write fully what you have to offer, stating rent, to box 170 care of Herald. —81

Real Estate For Rent

WANTED TO RENT—Modern house. Write Box P. care Herald. Give particulars. Possession April 1st. —81

Real Estate For Sale

82—Business Property for Sale

RESTAURANT FOR SALE—Good buy. Fixtures and stock. Including beer license, $200 if sold at once. Write Box Q care Herald. —82

FOR SALE—36 ft. city lot on E. Franklin-st. Inq. Emma Stout, 136 E. Main-st. —83

83—Farms for Sale

FOR SALE—A modern country home of 32 acres, located on a good road. Will consider a trade; A 23-acre tract with fair improvements on a good pike; A 16 and 5 acre tract, good improvements and locations; Several dwellings at bargain prices. Phone 234. CIRCLE REALTY CO., W. C. Morris, Sec'y. Rooms 3 and 4, Masonic Temple. —83

84—Houses for Sale

FOR SALE—A dandy modern home with a two-car garage on Court-st. Possession given at once.

CIRCLE REALTY CO., Masonic Temple, Phone 234. Rooms 3 and 4

Classified Display

Automotive

EXCLUSIVE

Trade Windshield Service
Wiper Motor for a New One.
Charter Starter Drive Service
Edison Batteries
Genuine Chevrolet Parts.
We Cut Keys for All Makes of Cars.

COMPLETE DUCO AND BODY SERVICE.

Get our estimate before you order your next repair or service job.

The Harden Stevenson Co.
132 E. Franklin St.

Business Service

LOANS

MONEY LOANED ON HOMES IN CIRCLEVILLE

THE SCIOTO

BUILDING & LOAN CO.

J. C. Goeller, President
E. S. Neuding, Vice President
O. S. Howard, Treasurer
P. R. Nicholas, Secretary
C. A. Leist, Attorney

Merchandise

NOTICE!

RAW FURS WANTED

Will Pay the Highest Market Prices!

CADDY MILLER HAT SHOP

125 W. Main St.

ARBOREACULTURE

The Improved Tree Surgery. Tree Surgery too often trims your pocketbook more than it benefits the tree. We help your trees to help themselves; our prices are not prohibitive.

BREHMER GREENHOUSES

Call 44.

FOR THE BEST LUNCH IN TOWN

Come To

THE MECCA RESTAURANT

128 W. Main St.

CLASSIFIED ADS PAY

77—Houses for Rent

7 ROOM Stucco single with bath. Park Place, $20. Mack Parrett, Jr. Phone 7 or 303. —77

63—Rooms Without Board

FOR RENT—2 sleeping rooms in private family, centrally located. Phone 1311.

81—Wanted to Rent

WANTED TO RENT—A 3 or 4 room furnished or semi-furnished apt. or small furnished house. Prefer central location. Write fully what you have to offer, stating rent, to box 170 care of Herald. —81

BUS SCHEDULE

VALLEY PUBLIC SERVICE CO

NORTH BOUND

Leave Circleville, A. M.—6:38 8:08 10:08 P. M.—12:08 1:08
2:08 3:08 5:08 6:08 7:08 9:08 11:08.

SOUTH BOUND

Leave Circleville, A. M.—6:57 8:57 10:57 P. M.—12:37 1:37
2:37 3:37 5:37 6:37 7:37 9:37 11:37.

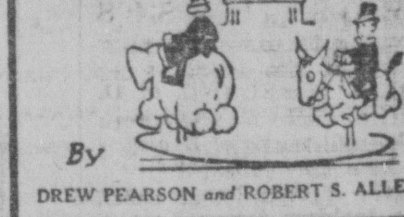

North Bound Busses leaving Circleville at 6:38 a. m., 6:08 p. m. go through Ashville.

South Bound Busses leaving Circleville at 6:57 a. m., 12:37, 6:37, 11:37 p. m. go through Kingston.

Bus Terminal... Cook's Confectionery

128 N. Court St.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

Roosevelt's Devaluation of Gold Proves Boon to Hoover and Mills

WASHINGTON — Roosevelt's devaluation of gold is proving a great boon to his predecessor in the White House — also to his old friend Ogden Mills, ex-Secretary of the Treasury. Both Mills and Hoover own gold-mining properties in the west, now experiencing the biggest boom in decades. Incidentally this is a windfall much appreciated by Mr. Hoover, according to his friends.

Facing Life Fight

Heavy expenses while in the White House, plus the depression, had gravely diminished his once ample fortune. Henry Wilder Keyes, New Hampshire Republican, whose complete public silence for 16 years has won him the name of "The Mute," is the only Senator who lists his wife's name in the Congressional Directory. Unknown when he arrived in Washington, Mrs. Keyes (Frances Parkinson Keyes) has written her way to national magazine fame. Frank Hogan, attorney for Harry Sinclair, Colonel Robert Stewart and other defendants in the oil scandals, enhanced his prestige during these cases. But his hide-and-go-seek methods in keeping Bill MacCracken away from the Senate have lost most of it. One reason is that public sentiment has now changed. It is no longer popular to buck the government.

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

The big radio companies are nervous for fear their wave-length franchises may go the way of the air mail contracts. If the back history of the allocation of wavelengths was really probed, the radio arrangements during the campaign, in charge of Roosevelt's radio, would be a laughing matter. The "New Dealers," now being run serially in a Washington newspaper, was written by John Franklin Carter, alias "Jay Franklin." Carter is now doing a job as the Agricultural Department's chief writer to Secretary Wallace. With lady members of the House of Representatives, Walter Winchell's daily column is as accurate as regular as breakfast. In losing their blast against company unions the other day, the steel barons unwittingly gave the impetus for a legislative drive to outlaw the very institutions they advocated. It was a boomerang. The steel moguls also got on their necks a drive for a 30-

Liquor Probe

Drys on Capitol Hill plan to demand a Congressional investigation of liquor profiteering. They are gathering a mass of data to support their resolution, slated for introduction early in the Spring. Congress is being deluged with complaints of excessive liquor charges and many wets favor the investigation. "Steve" Early, White House press secretary, is carving out a new niche for himself. Twice within a few days he has been given the job of administering public "spankings" to notorious offending the President.

Radio Jitters

THE RED AND BLACK

DEPARTMENT OF THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD
PUBLISHED BY THE JOURNALISM CLASS

VOLUME 7

FEBRUARY 17, 1934

NUMBER 21

Mr. S. T. Rife

(A Tribute.)

Mr. Rife was highly respected and esteemed by all with whom he came in contact. During the eight years he was a teacher in Circleville public schools, he was a kind and loving teacher, with a smile for everyone.

As a final tribute to Mr. Rife, Superintendent Daley said, "It is a great thing to have lived, to be revered and respected as Mr. Rife was in life, and to be missed after death as he will be. I have never known anyone to have been held in more universal esteem by his fellow-teachers and pupils. In the death of Mr. Rife I have lost a true friend and a scholarly companion—a loss I greatly lament." Principal Gephart in paying his respects said, "Mr. Rife had a wealth of information at his command and was thoroughly versed in the subject matter of the courses he taught. Add to this his desire for boys and girls to become well informed and his understanding of human nature and one can understand the esteem pupils and fellow-teachers had for him. It was a pleasure to have been associated with Mr. Rife as a teacher and friend."

STUDENTS TO GIVE ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Plans are being completed for a chapel program to be given on Thursday, Feb. 22.

Among those participating will be Theda Anderson, Howard Ater, William Ashbrook, Paul Davis, Virginia Caskey, Henry Helwagen, Raymond Hill, Jack White, Rodrick Watts, Marvene Wallace, and Glenn Weiler.

The program will be of a diversified nature.

Gaylord Greenlee is the director of the orchestra.

FACULTY SELECTS YEARBOOK STAFF

AUGHINBAUGH TO SPEAK AT C.H.S. FRIDAY

State Director of Visual Education to Give Illustrated Lecture On "Ohio."

Circleville high school students are fortunate to have the opportunity of hearing B. A. Aughinbaugh, State Director of Visual Education, who will give an illustrated lecture on "Ohio" in the high school auditorium next Friday afternoon, February 23.

All Circleville public school students from fifth grade up are cordially welcomed to attend. Tickets will go on sale next week. Those planning to attend must buy their tickets before noon Friday.

Two-fifths of the proceeds will go to the speaker for expenses; one fifth to the school and two fifths for the school to use in conjunction with the State for Visual Education.

The number of programs to be given will depend on the number of tickets sold.

The small sum of 10 cents will be charged.

C. Moore, R. Newland Named Editors; Weldon, Harman, Managers.

The staff for the 1934 "Circle," selected Wednesday is comprised of Charlotte Moore, Editor-in-chief; Ruth Newland, assistant editor; William Weldon, business manager; and Thomas Harman, assistant manager.

The selections were made by the faculty committee composed of Miss Mattinson, faculty advisor; Miss Hitler, assistant advisor; Mr. Gephart, faculty business manager and Mr. Zaenglein in charge of photography.

It is the duty of the editors to have charge of all editing, to check all write-ups, supervise the layout and see that all material is available.

The business managers have charge of advertising, contracts for engraving, printing, binding, senior pictures, and the subscription campaign.

GREEN PASTURES TO BE AT ATHENS

Word has been received that "Green Pastures" is coming to the Memorial auditorium, Ohio university, Athens, on Monday night, February 6.

Seats may be purchased at $1.00 and $1.50.

Should any Circleville residents be interested in driving to Athens to see this famous production, further information is available by phoning the high school.

EXPRESSION OF SYMPATHY

The sympathy of the teachers and pupils of the high school building goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lea in the critical illness of their eight-year-old daughter, Lorraine Lea.

WITTENBERG TO OFFER SERVICES TO C. H. S. SENIORS

College Again Gives Grad-Elect Chance To Learn About Higher Education.

Mr. W. H. Blough of Wittenberg college will address the Senior class next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock on college education. This will serve as an incentive for seniors to start pondering over what steps they shall take upon graduation.

Those seniors interested in institutions of higher learning and who are thinking of entering college will have an opportunity to fill out a questionnaire.

These questionnaires will be delivered to the personnel department at Wittenberg college, and those who made them out will be informed whether they are fully prepared to enter college.

This procedure is known as "Wittenberg college service." Other colleges have a similar service and their representatives will visit "new Everts" from time to time throughout the spring months.

"Hi-Y"

At last week's meeting the members decided that they will attend church in a body once a month. They also plan to give an assembly program, and have a swimming party later in the year.

Jim Reichelderfer, the president, appointed a committee consisting of Ned Plum, Jim Henderson, and Louis Bagent to take charge of the next social meeting.

Two Amendments to the Constitution of the Hi-Y were proposed at their weekly meeting Tuesday.

One deals with back dues and the other with a sergeant-at-arms. The proposed amendments will be voted on next week.

Mr. Gephart gave a short talk on "parliamentary procedure."

Miss Rains was absent from school yesterday due to the death of her grandmother, who passed away Thursday night.

Mrs. Clark will substitute for Miss Rains.

D. Cupid Makes Raid on C. H. S.

Dan Cupid is likely to run into difficulties with General Hugh S. Johnson if things don't change around C. H. S. Dan has been working more than six hours per day and that is a downright violation of some code or other.

This school year is unusual in the number of students entering the state of holly wedlock. If things become much worse, Mr. Gephart will be forced to add to his cabinet a Secretary of Matrimony to keep track of the folks who are getting married. This state of affairs might be due to the winter save for the fact that this winter has been one of the most frigid experienced in several seasons. To the learned it is known that cold weather dampens the ardor and spirits of the romantic. In spite of this fact, Dan's work has not been in vain. Weather then must not be blamed this time.

When the wedding bells rang a week ago for Vernon Lowery and Evelyn Holland it raised to five the total number who have deserted C. H. S. for the quiet, secluded life. Others who have preferred setting up a household other than that in which they were staying have been Mary Helwagen, Beulah Viney, and Virginia Dowden.

To cap the story and make bad matters worse it is now being rumored that Mr. William Kellstadt, Esq. (Esq. means "gentleman") is about to join the happy throng.

Help! Help! Mr. Roosevelt!

SOCIETY

Miss Helen Crist, Editor, Phone 581

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES HAVE FEBRUARY MEETING.

The Presbyterian Women's Social club held its February meeting in the social room of the church Friday evening.

Mrs. B. T. Hedges, president of the club, presided at the business session and Mrs. E. Dreshbach read the minutes of the previous meeting. At the close of the business, Mrs. Hedges presented Mrs. George McDowell, who was assisted by Mrs. Sterling Lamb in presenting a most enjoyable program to a large and appreciative audience.

The first section of the program was a song and guessing contest, which was highly entertaining. Each song or poem on the list was dramatized by the following persons: Mrs. McDowell, Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Blanche Mutschman. Miss Rosemary Boggs received the prize in this contest.

The next feature was a series of short talks, when the following persons delightfully told of the "Most embarrassing moments" of their lives: Miss Florence Dutton, Mrs. Howard Jones, Mrs. E. S. Toensmeier, Mrs. E. E. Porter, Mrs. Stanley Lewis and Mrs. McDowell. The third part of the program consisted of two one-act plays; the first was a clever comedy entitled "Johnny and His Pe" by Charles Dickson.

The cast of characters included Mrs. Blanche Mutschman as Pa; Mrs. McDowell as Ma.

The second also a comedy entitled "Spring Has Come" by Edna S. Marshall, was portrayed as follows: Mrs. Lamb as Mrs. Lewis, and Mrs. Mutschman as Jimmy Lewis.

A clever bit of acting in these two selections and the "nifty" costumes added to their popularity.

A social session ensued and the entire group was invited to a handsomely appointed table game in its Valentine decorations, where delicious refreshments were dispensed.

Mrs. Glenn I. Nickerson, chairman of the hostess committee, was assisted by Mrs. George Goodchild, Mrs. Elgar Barrere, Mrs. Charles Drebach, Miss Abbe Clarke, Mrs. Altha Lucas, Mrs. J. M. Morris, Mrs. C. A. Weldon, Mrs. W. H. Nelson, Mrs. James Adams, Miss Lola Wentworth and Mrs. Ralph Roby.

MRS. HEGELE ENTERTAINS

Mrs. William Hegele, E. Main-st., entertained fifteen members and guests of the Yo-Yo sewing club at her home Friday evening.

A delightful evening was enjoyed in quilting and at its close a delicious two course luncheon was served by the hostess.

Guests beside the members included Rev. and Mrs. T. C. Harper and daughter, Virginia, Mrs. Cecil Porter, Mrs. Ida Malone, Mrs. Arista Riffle and Mrs. John Kerns.

BRIDGE CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

Miss Lucile Neuding, E. Main-st., was hostess to members of her bridge club and one guest, Mrs. Harry Heffner, Thursday evening at her home.

Cards were in play at two tables during the pleasant hours which were brought to a close when the hostess served dainty refreshments. Mrs. Heffner was winner of the efficiency favor in the game.

SEWING CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. GOODCHILD

Mrs. George Goodchild, of the Lancaster-pk., pleasantly entertained thirteen members of the Sew and So club at her home Thursday afternoon.

The enjoyable hours, spent in sewing were concluded when a delicious salad course was served by the hostess.

In two weeks Mrs. Earl Lutz, E. Main-st., will be hostess to the club.

FOUR MARRY AT DOUBLE CEREMONY.

Justice of the Peace Harold O. Eveland officiated at a double ceremony Friday morning at 11 o'clock, when Miss Marguerite Leach, of Chillicothe, and Lester George Hawk of this city, and Miss Dorothy Irene Irwin, of Chillicothe, and Charles Oscar Zwicker of this city, were united in marriage.

Vienna Storm Center

Karl Seitz, Socialist Mayor of Vienna, long a stormy petrel of Austrian politics, who was arrested on conspiracy charge when Hitler troops captured the City Hall, reports were current in rioting Vienna that he had died in custody.

CECELIAN CLUE WILL PRESENT PROGRAM HERE.

In appreciation of the program given by the local Monday club quartette before the Cecilian club at Washington C. H., last fall, several members of the latter club will come to this city Monday evening to present a musical program at the Monday club meeting.

The visitors' program includes talented musicians and promises to be highly entertaining and beneficial. Music lovers of the club are looking forward to Monday's meeting with much interest.

The program follows:

Two pianos, "Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn—Lorie King and Lillian Teevans. String trio, "Serenade" by A. Arensky—Lillian Teevans, violin; Cornelia McClimans, cello; and Charlotte Hazard, piano.

Voice, "Ere since the day when unto thee I gave me" from Opera, and "Louise" by Charpentier—Louis H. Maurer.

Violin solo, "Prelude" from Du Deluge by Saint Saens—Lillian Teevans.

Piano solo, "Blue Danube Waltzes" (Concert Arrangement) by Schulz-Evler—Lorie King.

String trio, "Elegie" by Ather-ton—Miss Teevans, Miss McClimans and Miss Hazard.

Voice, "Lo! Hear the Gentle Lark," by Bishop—Lois H. Maurer.

Piano duet, "Rhapsody No. 2" by Liszt—Miss King and Miss Hazard.

MR. AND MRS. FISSELL ARE HOSTS TO CLUB MEMBERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller were guests when Mr. and Mrs. George Fissell, E. Franklin-st., entertained the members of their two table club at their home Friday evening.

Winners of trophies at the conclusion of the pleasant hours were Mrs. Herschel Hill, Mrs. Macolm Parrott and Mrs. Fissell.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Imler, E. Franklin-st., will entertain the club next week.

TEMPERANCE MEETING PLAN

The Circleville W.C.T.U. will meet Friday evening, Feb. 23, in the Sunday School room of the Methodist church. A Francis Willard memorial program will be given.

Miss Lucile Crist, N. Court-st. is a week-end guest of Miss Marie Schreiner near Washington C. H.

Mrs. Donald Morris and daughter, Nancy, and Miss Virginia Nye, of Chillicothe, visited Thursday with Misses Harriett and Mary Marfield, E. Main-st.

Robert Musser, N. Court-st., is on a few weeks' business trip in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Adkins, S. Court-st., will be dinner guests Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Morris of Chillicothe.

Raymond Maechtel, who was called here by the death of his father, William Maechtel, will return to New York City Sunday.

John Kirkpatrick, of Ohio State university, Columbus, is spending the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Fannie Kirkpatrick, E. Ohio-st.

Nebraska, Deloit and Seloto Valley Granges—7:30 p. m. joint meeting at Walnut-tpw school, with Nebraska grange as host. The third and fourth degrees will be conferred on a class of candidates from the three granges by Nebraska degree team. A covered-dish lunch will be served after the meeting.

Daughters of the Union Veterans sewing circle—2 p. m. in the

Calendar

MONDAY

Monday club—7:30 p. m. regular meeting in the trustees room of the Library. The music division, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clark Will, will be in charge of the program.

TUESDAY

Pickaway Plains chapter Daughters of the American Revolution—2:30 p. m. annual Washington Birthday tea at the home of Mrs. R. R. Bales, E. Main-st. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Henry Lewis, Mrs. Orion King, Mrs. Charles E. Wright, Mrs. Blenn Bales, Miss Mary Wilder, Mrs. Harp Van Riper, Mrs. Charles Pugsley and local D. A. R. officers.

Catherine Wolfley Hodges tent Daughters of the Union Veterans—7:30 p. m. regular meeting at Memorial hall.

Zelda Guild of the Methodist Episcopal church—7:30 regular meeting in the church basement.

Young People's society of Christ Lutheran Church—7:30 p. m. monthly session at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kern of Jackson-tpw.

Logan Elm Grange—7:30 p. m. regular meeting at the Pickaway-tpw school. The degree teams from Washington and Salt Creek Valley granges will confer the first and second degrees on a class of candidates.

WEDNESDAY

Nebraska, Deloit and Seloto Valley Granges—7:30 p. m. joint meeting at Walnut-tpw school, with Nebraska grange as host. The third and fourth degrees will be conferred on a class of candidates from the three granges by Nebraska degree team. A covered-dish lunch will be served after the meeting.

Daughters of the Union Veterans sewing circle—2 p. m. in the

THURSDAY

Ladies' Aid society of the United Brethren church—2 p. m. regular meeting at the Community house.

Washington Grange—7:30 p. m. regular meeting at Washington-tpw school. Members are to note the change from Friday to Thursday night. The married men will be in charge of the program.

Royal Neighbors of America—7:30 p. m. regular meeting in the lodge room.

Business and Professional Women's club—7:30 p. m. social meeting in the club rooms. Miss Mary Wilder will be in charge of the program.

FRIDAY

Merrie-makers sewing club of the Eastern Star—2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. George Foerst, N. Court-st.

Junior O. U. A. M.—Evening open meeting. Public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Doan, W. Franklin-st., motored to Portsmouth Saturday on business.

Dean White, student at Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, is spending the week-end at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Cary Benbow, of Muncie, Ind., are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Randall, E. Franklin-st.

Learning to Croon Like Dad

It isn't every youngster who starts to follow in father's footsteps at such an early age as Gary Evan Crosby, who, at eight months, is learning to croon in the style made famous by his dad, Bing Crosby, screen and radio singer. Here's young "Bing" brushing up his technique before the mike in the Crosby home at Hollywood.

Calendar

MONDAY

Monday club—7:30 p. m. regular meeting in the trustees room of the Library. The music division, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clark Will, will be in charge of the program.

TUESDAY

Pickaway Plains chapter Daughters of the American Revolution—2:30 p. m. annual Washington Birthday tea at the home of Mrs. R. R. Bales, E. Main-st. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Henry Lewis, Mrs. Orion King, Mrs. Charles E. Wright, Mrs. Blenn Bales, Miss Mary Wilder, Mrs. Harp Van Riper, Mrs. Charles Pugsley and local D. A. R. officers.

Catherine Wolfley Hodges tent Daughters of the Union Veterans—7:30 p. m. regular meeting at Memorial hall.

Zelda Guild of the Methodist Episcopal church—7:30 regular meeting in the church basement.

Young People's society of Christ Lutheran Church—7:30 p. m. monthly session at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kern of Jackson-tpw.

Logan Elm Grange—7:30 p. m. regular meeting at the Pickaway-tpw school. The degree teams from Washington and Salt Creek Valley granges will confer the first and second degrees on a class of candidates.

WEDNESDAY

Nebraska, Deloit and Seloto Valley Granges—7:30 p. m. joint meeting at Walnut-tpw school, with Nebraska grange as host. The third and fourth degrees will be conferred on a class of candidates from the three granges by Nebraska degree team. A covered-dish lunch will be served after the meeting.

Daughters of the Union Veterans sewing circle—2 p. m. in the

THURSDAY

Ladies' Aid society of the United Brethren church—2 p. m. regular meeting at the Community house.

Washington Grange—7:30 p. m. regular meeting at Washington-tpw school. Members are to note the change from Friday to Thursday night. The married men will be in charge of the program.

Royal Neighbors of America—7:30 p. m. regular meeting in the lodge room.

Business and Professional Women's club—7:30 p. m. social meeting in the club rooms. Miss Mary Wilder will be in charge of the program.

FRIDAY

Merrie-makers sewing club of the Eastern Star—2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. George Foerst, N. Court-st.

Junior O. U. A. M.—Evening open meeting. Public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Doan, W. Franklin-st., motored to Portsmouth Saturday on business.

Dean White, student at Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, is spending the week-end at his home here.

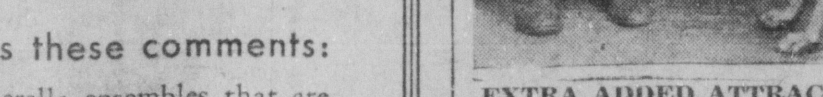

Mr. and Mrs. Cary Benbow, of Muncie, Ind., are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Randall, E. Franklin-st.

GRAND Opera House

SUNDAY, MONDAY and TUESDAY

Feb. 18-19-20

Special Sunday Matinee

EXTRA ADDED ATTRACTION

WORLD FAMOUS RADIO STARS

"THE DIAMOND TROUBADOURS"

AND CONNER'S FAMOUS DOGS

ON THE SCREEN

CLARA BOW

In "HOOPLA"

Cartoon News Comedy. Upstairs 10c Lower Floor 25c.

TONIGHT

CHESTER MORRIS WITH HELEN TWELVETREES IN

"King for a Night"

THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD

Mrs. Anna Deo, of Detroit, sister of O. S. and C. K. Howard, will return to her home Saturday evening after a three weeks visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Howard, E. Main-st.

Cables Across Atlantic

The first attempt to lay a cable across the Atlantic in 1857 ended in failure when the cable broke at a depth of 2,000 fathoms. In August, 1858, a cable was successfully laid between Valentia, Ireland, and Heart's Content, Newfoundland. There are twenty-one cables across the Atlantic between North America and Europe. The outside diameter of the ordinary deep-sea type of cable is about one inch, and the weight in the air about two tons per nautical mile. The shore-end types run as large as three and one-half inches in diameter and weigh as much as thirty tons per nautical mile.

HANLEY'S Special Sunday Dinner 50c

Cream of Celery Soup or Grape Juice
Roast Chicken
Leg of Lamb with Mint Jelly
Roast Lamb of Beef
Mashed Potatoes
Asparagus Tips on Toast
String Beans, Celery
Cranberries

Spring Salad Hot Rolls
Cake and Ice Cream
Coffee Tea Milk.

MONDAY'S MENU 30c

Chicken Pie
Escalloped Potatoes
Fruit Salad
Rolls and Butter
Ice Cream or Cherry Pie
Coffee, Tea or Milk.

QUILTONA TODAY

WODVIL

PEP GOLDEN REVIEW

20—People—20

SPECIAL MIDNITE

11 P. M. SHOW 11 P. M.

SCREEN

JACKIE COOPER

Some Cowboy

Comedy and News Reel

Sunday - Mon. - Tues.

A GIRL IN EVERY

Port HOLE!!!

BROWN

Blow me down if it ain't the

"SON OF A SAILOR"

The Fleet's In ...

</